

OUTCAST CAPE TOWN

JOHN WESTERN

Foreword by ROBERT COLES

Outcast Cape Town

Brian J. Shaw, Roy Jones

Outcast Cape Town:

Outcast Cape Town, 1997 Social geographer John Western analyzes the urban spatial planning of the 1950 Group Areas Act that achieved in the built environment of Cape Town the racial separatism of apartheid His new prologue for the paperback edition assesses the changes to be expected from the new government and the obstacles to significant change

The Locus of Care Peregrine Horden, Richard Smith, 2013-01-11 The care of the needy and the sick is delivered by various groups including immediate family the wider community religious organisations and the State funded institutions The Locus of Care provides an historical perspective on welfare detailing who carers were in the past where care was provided and how far the boundary between family and state or informal and organised institutions have changed over time Eleven international contributors provide a wide ranging examination of themes such as child care mental health and provision for the elderly and question the idea that there has been a recent evolutionary shift from informal provision to institutional care Chapters on Europe and England use case studies and link evidence from ancient and medieval periods to contemporary problems and the recent past whilst studies on China and South Africa look to the future of welfare throughout the world By placing welfare in its historical social cultural and demographic contexts Locus of Care reassesses community and institutional care and the future expectations of welfare provision

The African Poor John Iliffe, 1987-12-25 This history of the poor of Sub Saharan Africa begins in the monasteries of thirteenth century Ethiopia and ends in the South African resettlement sites of the 1980s Its thesis derived from histories of poverty in Europe is that most very poor Africans have been individuals incapacitated for labour bereft of support and unable to fend for themselves in a land rich economy There has emerged the distinct poverty of those excluded from access to productive resources Natural disaster brought widespread destitution but as a cause of mass mortality it was almost eliminated in the colonial era to return to those areas where drought has been compounded by administrative breakdown Professor Iliffe investigates what it was like to be poor how the poor sought to help themselves how their counterparts in other continents live The poor live as people rather than merely parading as statistics Famines have alerted the world to African poverty but the problem itself is ancient Its prevailing forms will not be understood until those of earlier periods are revealed and trends of change are identified This is a book for all concerned with the future of Africa as well as for students of poverty elsewhere

Multicultures and Cities Gösta Arvastson, Tim Butler, 2006 In the planning of city development it is important that different groups should be able to live in peaceful coexistence This is how the concept multicultural came about During the 1970s multiculturalism was developed into a model of political democracy a strategy for society's rapid change The term multiculturalism suggests that contemporary urban cultures somehow co exist in a condition of mutual respect and possible equality The new multiculturalism seems very different from the migration that took place in the 1960s and 1970s The essays in this collection address the general themes of ethnicity and contemporary European urbanism in many different ways examining a wide variety of cities and city pairings

The common bond in these writings is the impact that a contemporary merging of ethnicity and culture is having on the new urbanity that is now widely accepted as driving the new Europe. The effect is far greater than might be predicted from the relative social powerlessness of many of the bearers of these cultures. At the same time existing urban processes continue to ensure the marginality of these groups.

The Emergence of the South African Metropolis Vivian Bickford-Smith, 2016-05-16 A pioneering account of how South Africa's three leading cities were fashioned, experienced, promoted and perceived.

The Oxford Handbook of the Modern Slum Alan Mayne, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of the Modern Slum explores the history of the modern slum connecting nineteenth century iterations through multiple pathways to its contemporary existence. With chapters by 28 scholars, this handbook brings an array of important and original perspectives and methodologies to bear on slums real and imagined across the globe. Drawing upon anthropology, archaeology, architecture, geography, history, politics, sociology and urban planning, the book delves into households and communities whose existence has been hidden by stereotypes.

Kronos, 1999 Burdened by Race Mohamed Adhikari, 2009 Understanding the process and culture of self identification. AF Press Clips, 1982 Ethnologia Europaea Vol. 34:2 Gösta Arvastson, Tim Butler, 2004 Ethnologia Europaea has set itself the task of breaking down not only the barriers which divide research into Europe from general ethnology but also the barriers between the various national schools within the continent. With this manifesto Ethnologia Europaea was started in 1969. Since then it has acquired a central position in the international co-operation between ethnologists in the various European countries in the East as well as in the West. It is however a journal of topical interest not only for ethnologists but also for anthropologists, social historians and others studying the social and cultural forms of everyday life in recent and historical European societies.

Syracuse Scholar, 1986 Contested Urban Heritage Brian J. Shaw, Roy Jones, 1997 In this book the contributions address the following issues: how spaces and places have been culturally constructed and how these constructions have been altered through time; how these spaces and places might be interpreted as the intentional and unintentional outcomes of and representations of social relations which are themselves necessarily temporal; and how all components of our increasingly pluralist societies contribute to the cultural constructions of these localities. Adapted from the introduction.

Southern African Update, 1990 A Study in Trans-ethnicity in Modern South Africa Balasubramanyam Chandramohan, 1992 This study examines the fiction and non-fiction work of Alex La Guma including his early journalism. It incorporates some works, especially his cartoon series Little Libby. The Adventures of Liberation Chabalala. It investigates the way the South African social context blends into his work.

South Africa Riana Prinsloo, Myriam Jansen-Verbeke, Dominique Vanneste, 1999 African Urban Quarterly, 1989 Urban Geography, 1988 States of Violence Edna G. Bay, Donald Lewis Donham, 2006 By focusing on the participation and consequences for ordinary people, this collection offers a fresh perspective on the eruption of violence in sub-Saharan Africa. None of the contributions takes the easy way out, either by claiming any special propensity of Africans to violence or by calling attention to titillating aspects of the violence itself Rather they offer thick descriptions of particular violent episodes to develop their contexts and the larger causes that made them happen The case studies drawn from field research in Guinea Bissau Nigeria Rwanda Sierra Leone South Africa and Zimbabwe search for the meaning of specific instances of collective violence to the individuals caught up in them Nelson Kasfir Dartmouth College This coherently assembled set of contributions illuminates crucial aspects of the disorder and insecurity afflicting much of contemporary Africa The potent social force of a marginalized youth generation is explored in its different manifestations in a variety of settings by an excellent roster of scholars Crawford Young Emeritus Professor of Political Science University of Wisconsin Madison Unmatched in its ethnographic depth and attention to critical dimensions of African conflicts This volume cuts across the continent and across several intertwining themes to provide highly contextual analyses within a well defined framework Catherine Besteman Colby College editor of Violence A Reader Africana Journal ,1982 History Making and Present Day Politics Hans Erik Stolten,2007 In this collection some of South Africa s most distinguished historians and social scientists present their views on the importance of history and heritage for the transformation of the South African society Although popular use of history helped remove apartheid the study of history lost status during the transition process Some of the reasons for this like the nature of the negotiated revolution social demobilization and individualization are analyzed in this book The combination of scholarly work with an active role in changing society has been a central concern in South African history writing This book warns against the danger of history being caught between reconciliation commercialization and political correctness Some of the articles critically examine the role of historians in ideological debates on gender African agency Afrikaner anti communism early South African socialism and the role of the business world during late apartheid Other contributions explore continuing controversies on the politics of public history in post apartheid South Africa describe the implementation of new policies for history education or investigate the use of applied history in the land restitution process and in the TRC The authors also examine a range of new government and private initiatives in the practical use of history including the establishment of new historical entertainment parks and the conversion of museums and heritage sites For readers interested in nation building processes and identity politics this book provides valuable insight
