So You Want to Sing Country Kelly K. Garner,2016-10-27 Country music an original American artform has been around since before the recording industry began and long before a singer even had the opportunity to sing into a microphone From the early beginnings in the hills of Appalachia to the rise of Hank Williams Patsy Cline and the more recent megastars including Garth Brooks and Carrie Underwood country music has proven to have staying power It is one of the most popular styles of music in the world today garnering more sales and downloads currently than any other genre Many talented individuals are aspiring to sing country music and are determined to turn it into a successful career Because of this growing popularity there is a need to educate interested singers with information and methods that will give them the best possible chance at either having a career as a artist working in the industry as a background vocalist or session singer or simply realizing their potential in country music Kelly K Garner s So You Want To Sing Country is a book devoted to briefly reviewing the rich heritage of country singing and thoroughly examining the techniques and methods of singing in a country style Additional topics of discussion will include country song types and structure instrumentation performing on stage and in the studio and career options in country music Additional chapters by Scott McCoy and Wendy LeBorgne and Matthew Edwards address universal questions of voice science and pedagogy vocal health and audio enhancement technology The So

Art and Masculinity in Post-War Britain Gregory Salter,2020-05-18 In this book Gregory Salter traces how artists represented home and masculinities in the period of social and personal reconstruction after the Second World War in Britain Salter considers home as an unstable entity at this historical moment imbued with the optimism and hopes of post war recovery while continuing to resonate with the memories and traumas of wartime Artists examined in the book include John Bratby Francis Bacon Keith Vaughan Francis Newton Souza and Victor Pasmore Case studies featured range from the nuclear family and the body to the nation Combined they present an argument that art enables an understanding of post war reconstruction as a temporally unstable long term phenomenon which placed conceptions of home and masculinity at the heart of its aims Art and Masculinity in Post War Britain sheds new light on how the fluid concepts of society nation masculinity and home interacted and influenced each other at this critical period in history and will be of interest to anyone studying art history anthropology sociology history and cultural and heritage studies Schools and National Identities in French-speaking Africa Linda Gardelle, Camille Jacob, 2020-11-25 Schools and National Identities in French speaking Africa showcases cutting edge research to provide a renewed understanding of the role of schools in producing and reproducing national identities. Using individual case studies and comparative frameworks it presents diverse empirical and theoretical insights from and about a range of African countries. The volume demonstrates in particular the usefulness of the curriculum as a lens through which to analyse the production and negotiation of national identities in different settings. Chapters discuss the tensions between decolonisation as a moment in time and decolonisation as a lengthy and messy process, the interplay between the local national and international priorities of different actors and the nuanced role of historiography and language in nation building. At its heart is the need to critically investigate the concept of the nation as a political project, how discourses and feelings of belonging are constructed at school and what it means for schools to be simultaneously places of learning, tools of socialisation and political battlegrounds. By presenting new research on textbooks, practitioners and policy in ten different African countries this volume provides insights into the diversity of issues and dynamics surrounding the question of schools and national identities. It will be of particular interest to scholars, researchers and postgraduate students of comparative and international education, sociology, history, sociolinguistics and African studies.

Colorado Outdoors, 1970 New Jersey Outdoors, 1996 The Creative Arts in Counseling Samuel T. Gladding, 2021-03-23 The Creative Arts in Counseling presents an evidence based exploration of how expressive therapies can be used effectively with clients of all ages and backgrounds. After an introduction to the history and benefits of using the arts in counseling Dr Gladding discusses the therapeutic use of music, dance, movement, imagery, visual arts, writing, literature, drama, humor, play, animal assisted therapy and horticulture, nature and wilderness therapies. Text features include a new section on incorporating the creative arts in telebehavioral counseling, two part chapter overviews, 96 creative reflections for self discovery, 145 exercises for use in session and a listing of creative arts and art therapies websites. Proceedings RMRS., 2000 Coastal Environments in Popular Song Glenn Fosbraey, 2022-12-30 This book examines how popular music is able to approach subjects of bio politics, climate change, solastalgia and anthropomorphisation alongside its more common diet of songs about love, dancing and break ups all while satisfying its primary remit of being entertaining and listenable. Nearly a thousand books have been published on bioethics since Van Rensselaer Potter's Bioethics Bridge to the Future 1971 with a marked increase in the past 20 years. However, not one of these books has focused itself on popular music something Christopher Partridge describes as central to the construction of our identities, central to our sense of self, central to our well being and therefore central to our social relations This edited collection examines popular music through a range of topics from romance to climate change Coastal Environments in Popular Song is perfect for students scholars and researchers alike interested in bioethics social history and the history of music Gas Journal ,1925 Journal of Gas Lighting and Water Supply ,1925 The Electrical Journal ,1914 Landscape Architecture ,2006 The London Corn Circular ,1927
