Outland The Novelization:

Outland. [A Novel.] Gordon Stairs (pseud.),1910 Outland Richard J. Anobile,1981-01-01 Story told in captioned stills

A Study of the Modern Novel Annie Russell Marble,1928 Outland Mary Austin,1919 Shifting World David C.

Stineback,1976 In Shifting World Dr Stineback analyzes a neglected characteristic of American novels the Jamesian sense of the sense of the past He demonstrates how this motif reflects an understanding of both the processes of history and the emotional burdens that those processes entail Ten novels are studied including The Pioneers Democracy The Bostonians The House of Mirth and more Outland Mary H. Austin,1919-10 High quality reprint of Outland by Mary Hunter Austin

Willa Cather in Context G. Reynolds,1996-04-01 Drawing on a range of material from archives in the USA and from a variety of primary historical sources this study places Cather s major fiction in its cultural context Reynolds explores progressivism primitivism and Americanization in such novels as My Antonia and O Pioneers Willa Cather in Context develops interdisciplinary readings of this important Nebraskan novelist placing her as a writer actively engaged with many of the key debates of early twentieth century America from immigration to evolutionary theory Willa Cather's

Ecological Imagination Susan J. Rosowski,2003-01-01 The wide ranging essays collected in this volume of Cather Studies examine Willa Cather s unique artistic relationship to the environment Under the theoretical rubric of ecocriticism these essays focus on Cather s close observations of the natural world and how the environment proves for most of these contributors to be more than simply a setting for her characters While it is certain that Cather s novels and short stories are deeply grounded in place literary critics are only now considering how place functions within her narratives and addressing environmental issues through her writing These essays reintroduce us to a Cather who is profoundly identified with the places that shaped her and that she wrote about Glen A Love offers an interdisciplinary reading of The Professor's House that is scientifically oriented Joseph Urgo argues that My ntonia models a preservationist aesthetic in which landscape and memory are inextricably entangled Thomas J Lyon posits that Cather had a living sense of the biotic community and used nature as the standard of excellence for human endeavors and Jan Goggans considers the ways that My ntonia shifts from nativism toward a flexible notion of place based community Music in Willa Cather's Fiction Richard

Giannone,2001-01-01 Music is everywhere in Willa Cather s fiction as a subject in the background slyly commenting on the action connecting characters to a distant world or revealing their interior worlds Not merely incidental or ornamental though music is intrinsic to Cather s work a distinctive quality of her creation and expression and it is in this light that Richard Giannone considers Cather s art Music in Willa Cather's Fiction is the definitive study of its subject The first work to examine the complex thematic and structural forms that music acquires in Cather s narratives Giannone s book uses this musical approach as a way of seeing into the author s artistic sensibility the evolution of her art and her total achievement Progressing chronologically Giannone shows how Cather s view and use of music changed over time From what her early journalistic pieces on music and musicians reveal about her attitude and anticipate in her later work Giannone moves to Cather's early stories to identify the trend of some of her artistic choices the direction of her stylistic development and the complication of her moral interest as these are manifested in musical references In her novels and later stories he emphasizes the contribution of music to the individual work as well as the allusions and connections that sound throughout her oeuvre

A Year of Real and Literary Birds Laura Godfrey, 2025-02-28 A Year of Real and Literary Birds is simultaneously an almanac of bird life a work of interdisciplinary literary scholarship and a chronicle of family life The book paints an intimate portrait of a place and a diverse cast of authors by bringing to life the birds within landscapes both literary and actual Intertwined within each chapter are animal narratives from a diverse sampling of writers including among others Homer the Brothers Grimm Sarah Orne Jewett William Wordsworth Walt Whitman Emily Dickinson Emily Bront Thomas Pynchon Willa Cather Toni Morrison Marilynne Robinson Gabriel Garcia Marquez Mary Oliver Bronislaw Maj Mourning Dove and repeatedly given Godfrey's background as a Hemingway scholar Ernest Hemingway Using a blend of ecocriticism animal studies close reading and the techniques of creative nonfiction Godfrey unpacks the ways that authors and ornithologists spanning the centuries have tried to bridge the gap between human and nonhuman worlds The Saturday Review of

Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance, 1910 Catalogue of the Officers and Students of Coe College Coe College, 1913 Novel Frames Joseph R. Uργο, 1991 Uργο argues that when literary texts depict selfhood in a particular historical context they convey more knowledge about society than the texts explicitly acknowledge This knowledge is not primarily historically accurate information but it consists of criticisms and questions that can help to formulate a contemporary cultural criticism connected to the American literary past Uργο reformulates the argument about race and identity in America in Ellison's Invisible Man and uses it to interpret TV coverage of Jesse Jackson in 1988 Faulkner's Sanctuary helps Uργο raise questions about sexuality and pornography and through these discourses of regulated desire about magazines like Glamour Cather's A Lost Lady 1923 provides ways of thinking about historical change and discontinuity which he uses to interpret alternative movements and texts from the 1960s such as Yippie anarchism and Overthrow magazine ISBN 0 87805 530 4 35 00
