The last thing she needs is a band of outlaws showing up and pushing her around. The Curly James gang members have no patience for her sass and when their leader attempts to strike her with his fist, one of his men volunteers to spank her instead. She wants to hate the good-looking outlaw, but he seems to have her well-being at heart, even risking his life to protect her from the other men. Unjustly accused of murder, Sam Pride is on the run, and his luck worsens when he tangles with the Curly James gang. The only bright spot is the little spitfire rancher who steals his heart with her courage and spunk. When the two set off together for Cheyenne and then Denver, sparks fly, and their magnetic connection grows. Still, Mabelle is not sure if Sam will commit, and even if he does, can he clear his name before a bounty hunter shoots him or brings him in? Part of the new Sons of Johnny Hastings series.
