Our Own Master Race Angus McLaren, 1990-12-15 Was Canada immune to the racist currents of thought that swept central Europe in the 1920 s and 1930 s In this landmark book Angus McLaren co author of The Bedroom and the State examines the pervasiveness in Canada of the eugenic notion of race betterment and demonstrates that many Canadians believed that radical measures were justified to protect the community from the degenerate The sterilization of the feeble minded in Alberta and British Columbia was merely the most dramatic attempt to limit the numbers of the unfit But in the decades prior to World War Two eugenic preoccupations were to colour discussions of immigration restriction birth control mental testing family allowances and a host of similar social policies Doctors psychiatrists geneticists social workers and mental hygienists provided an anxious Canadian middle class with the reassuring argument that poverty crime prostitution and mental retardation were primarily the products of defective genes not a defective social system In explaining why biological solutions were sought for social problems McLaren not only provides a provocative reappraisal of the ideas and activities of a generation of feminists political progressives and public health propagandists but he also explores some of the roots of our not so latent racist tendencies

National Manhood and the Creation of Modern Quebec Jeffery Vacante, 2017-06-15 This intellectual history explores how the idea of manhood shaped French Canadian culture and Quebec s nationalist movement During the latter half
