Our Sacred Honor:

Our Sacred Honor William J. Bennett, 2010-07-13 Millions of American families have turned to The Book of Virtues and The Moral Compass by William J Bennett for moral guidance in troubled times Our Sacred Honor offers inspiration and instruction as well this time of a particularly American sort We live in a time when the practice of representative government in the United States of America is under siege from both the left and the right Scandals abound We are first shocked then wearied to learn that our national leaders have feet of clay We live in a time in short which demands that we return to our origins to discover the common principles that make us essentially American Our Sacred Honor reveals those common principles They are articulated by the flawed but deeply admirable men and women who first wrote what it is to be American The pledge made by the Founders to one another that hot July day in 1776 the pledge of our lives our fortunes and our sacred honor has been redeemed many times in the centuries since but the nation they founded has never failed to profit from their example It is time to profit from their advice In Our Sacred Honor William J Bennett has collected the best that has been thought and said by and about the men and women who founded America And what a group they are George Washington Thomas Jefferson James Madison Benjamin Franklin Alexander Hamilton John and Abigail Adams and so many more that otherwise first rate intellects such as John Dickinson Benjamin Rush and George Mason are relegated to the status of footnotes in the popular imagination Not since Periclean Athens has such a small nation been led by so many larger than life figures The only characteristic they shared more widely than revolutionary ardor was their talent and inclination for advice The stories songs letters and speeches collected in Our Sacred Honor are an inspiring celebration of American exceptionalism produced by a collection of exceptional Americans It is the best book of advice in more than two hundred years

Our Sacred Honor Dr William J Bennett, 2001-01-01 This cherished collection of the words of America's founding fathers features selections from essays and correspondence written by such notable figures as George Washington Thomas Jefferson Benjamin Franklin and John Adams Here are the words of our founders on piety patriotism honesty justice and other moral underpinnings of the good and honorable life profit from their advice Our Sacred Honor Robert T. The Declaration of Independence ,1993* America: Our Sacred Honor Mary a Kardes,2015-06-15 America is at a crossroads and the road we elect to travel will either restore the spirit of America or continue to weaken our country forever Ordinary American citizens must make fundamental decisions We have been warned and though the warnings have been muted by media sources and special interest groups they are growing louder Voices of genuine concern come from within the United States and from abroad We Americans must listen to and take seriously what we are being told We need to educate ourselves about American history real unbiased history We need to know the Constitution the very cornerstone of our nation and we need to hold our politicians and government leaders accountable Americans must once again stand united to defend our beloved country and our very way of life Our Lives, Our Fortunes and Our Sacred Honor Richard R.

Beeman,2013-05-07 In 1768 Philadelphia physician Benjamin Rush stood before the empty throne of King George III overcome with emotion as he gazed at the symbol of America's connection with England Eight years later he became one of the fifty six men to sign the Declaration of Independence severing America forever from its mother country Rush was not alone in his radical decision many of those casting their votes in favor of independence did so with a combination of fear reluctance and even sadness In Our Lives Our Fortunes and Our Sacred Honor acclaimed historian Richard R Beeman examines the grueling twenty two month period between the meeting of the Continental Congress on September 5 1774 and the audacious decision for independence in July of 1776 As late as 1774 American independence was hardly inevitable indeed most Americans found it neither desirable nor likely When delegates from the thirteen colonies gathered in September they were in the words of John Adams a gathering of strangers Yet over the next two years military political and diplomatic events catalyzed a change of unprecedented magnitude the colonists rejection of their British identities in favor of American ones In arresting detail Beeman brings to life a cast of characters including the relentless and passionate John Adams Adams much misunderstood foil John Dickinson the fiery political activist Samuel Adams and the relative political neophyte Thomas Jefferson and with profound insight reveals their path from subjects of England to citizens of a new nation A vibrant narrative Our Lives Our Fortunes and Our Sacred Honor tells the remarkable story of how the delegates to the Continental Congress through courage and compromise came to dedicate themselves to the forging of American independence Our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor ,1978 Our Sacred Honor Cynthia Van Hazinga,1988-05-01 Three families in Boston Charleston and New York fight for disparate causes in the American Revolution and risk their dreams their loves and their very lives in the name of liberty Our Lives, Fortune & Sacred Honor Dorothy Thompson,1941 IN GOD WE TRUST or Do We? Tony Mavrakos,2013-03-04 For years the term IN GOD WE TRUST has labeled our currency and our country and I have been proud to have served my nation and its motto for twenty two years of military service With that in mind I am disappointed to see the spiritual direction that America is going in There has been a real assault on the Bible The Word of God and especially Christianity I still want to believe that God wants to bless America but I must be honest I have my doubt that In God We Trust probably has seen its better days What really bothers me is I m concerned America s motto today is IN GOD WE TRUST or do we
