Out Of Oneself:

Despite Oneself Claudia Welz,Karl Verstrynge,2008      Thinking with Kierkegaard Arne Grøn,2022-12-31 Arne Grøn's reading of Søren Kierkegaard's authorship revolves around existential challenges of human identity. The 35 essays that constitute this book are written over three decades and are characterized by combining careful attention to the augmentative detail of Kierkegaard's text with a constant focus on issues in contemporary philosophy. Contrary to many approaches to Kierkegaard's authorship, Grøn does not read Kierkegaard in opposition to Hegel. The work of the Danish thinker is read as a critical development of Hegelian phenomenology with particular attention to existential aspects of human experience. Anxiety and despair are the primary existential phenomena that Kierkegaard examines throughout his authorship and Grøn uses these negative phenomena to argue for the basically ethical aim of Kierkegaard's work. In Grøn's reading, Kierkegaard conceives human selfhood not merely as relational but also a process of becoming the self that one is through the otherness of self-experience that is the body, the world, other people and God. This book should be of interest to philosophers, theologians, literary studies scholars and anyone with an interest not only in Kierkegaard but also in human identity.

The Development of Ethics: Volume 1 Terence Irwin,2007-09-20 Volume 1 From Socrates to the Reformation      Mystery of God, Mystery of Christ Ysabel de Andia,2024-03-28 Now available in English for the first time, Ysabel de Andia's double exploration of Christian and Hindu mysticism provides a valuable addition to the field. Composed from lectures given in Benares in 2015 to priests of the Missions Etrangères de Paris, Mystery of God / Mystery of Christ combines the two main research interests that have defined de Andia's career: first, an understanding of Christian mysticism as growing out of the Christian mystery of Christ and the sacrament; and secondly, the relationship between this and Hindu contemplative prayer as articulated by Jules Monchanin. Beginning with the Cappadocian fathers, de Andia traces the developing interpretation of Mystery through Christian thinkers from Origen and Gregory of Nyssa to Basil and Dionysios the Areopagite. From here she begins to dovetail this study with an exploration of Hindu contemplation, relating the Carmelite mystic St. John of the Cross to the Advaitist tradition, especially as expounded by Shankara. Throughout her masterful understanding of both traditions is apparent. For English readers, her insight will provide a fresh perspective on this lively subject area.

The Fictive and the Imaginary Wolfgang Iser,1993-03-01 The pioneer of literary anthropology, Wolfgang Iser, presents a wide-ranging and comprehensive exploration of this new field in an attempt to explain the human need for the particular form of make-believe known as literature. Ranging from the Renaissance pastoral to Coleridge to Sartre and Beckett, The Fictive and the Imaginary is a distinguished work of scholarship from one of Europe's most respected and influential critics.

Variation and Change in Morphology Franz Rainer, Wolfgang U. Dressler, Dieter Kastovsky, Hans Christian Luschützky, 2010-02-24 The papers in this volume derive from the 13th International Morphology Meeting, Vienna 2008. They all address the main topic of the meeting: viz. variation and change in morphology. Inflectional and derivational morphology are represented on equal terms. The focus is on cases of language internal variation such as pattern competition base variation form function mismatches or morphological pleonasm Other recurring themes are language contact as a cause of variation the output orientedness of morphological patterns and linguistic economy The contributions cover a wide variety of languages both Indo European Romance Germanic and Slavic Latin Lithuanian and Romani and non Indo European Hungarian Maay Chinese Gadamer Donatella Di Cesare,2013-02-20 Hans Georg Gadamer 1900 2002 one of the towering figures of contemporary Continental philosophy is best known for Truth and Method where he elaborated the concept of philosophical hermeneutics a programmatic way to get to what we do when we engage in interpretation Donatella Di Cesare highlights the central place of Greek philosophy particularly Plato in Gadamer's work brings out differences between his thought and that of Heidegger and connects him with discussions and debates in pragmatism This is a sensitive and thoroughly readable philosophical portrait of one of the 20th century's most powerful thinkers Polydoxy Catherine Keller,Laurel Schneider,2010-10-04 The essays in this book take an exciting and creative approach to doing theology in the twenty first century The Wisdom of Life Arthur Schopenhauer,1901 The Intelligent Man's Guide to Marriage and Celibacy Juanita Tanner (pseud.),1929

Spiritualism and Phenomenology Emmanuel Falque,2025-04-08 The conflict between spiritualism and phenomenology will no longer take place Better it is through their encounter and their backlash that a new fruitfulness for thought will develop The case of Maine de Biran thus comes to exemplify a new beginning a la francaise for metaphysics on the one hand and for phenomenology on the other But the philosopher from Bergerac in the Dordogne is most often read according to his explicit meaning and not his implicit one He is supposedly the thinker of freedom and consciousness spiritualism or of the inner self and the lived body phenomenology But these readings forget the exceptions to the primitive fact of internal effort illness sleep sleepwalking madness the body object the outer self which mark Biran's oeuvre as one of the summits of a thought that escapes phenomenality and confers a real consistency upon corporeality A new Columbus of metaphysics as he himself names himself Maine de Biran read otherwise initiates for today a new beginning for thought The Christian Student Bp.
