Outlaw Aesthetics Fred E. H. Schroeder, 1977-01-01 Outlaw Aesthetics Fred E. H. Schroeder, 1977 Robin Hood in Outlaw/ed Spaces Lesley Coote, Valerie Johnson, 2016-11-10 Following in the tradition of recent work by cultural geographers and historians of maps this collection examines the apparently familiar figure of Robin Hood as he can be located within spaces that are geographical cultural and temporal The volume is divided into two sections the first features an interrogation of the literary and other textually transmitted spaces to uncover the critical grounds in which the Robin Hood legend has traditionally operated The essays in Part Two take up issues related to performative and experiential space demonstrating the reciprocal relationship between page stage and lived experience Throughout the volume the contributors contend with among other things modern theories of gender literary detective work and the ways in which the settings that once advanced court performances now include digital gaming and the enactment of real lives Personal Places Daniel Franklin Ward, 1984 The human constructed modifications of the environment and landscape examined in the essays collected here have been referred to as everything from piles of junk to the greatest accomplishments of humankind

Learning to See Alan Gowans, 1981 Learning to See starts on the assumption that popular commercial arts are a different kind of activity from avant garde arts today but that they represent the same kind of activity that we identify as arts historically It proceeds then to investigate how popular commercial arts carry out the social functions of historic arts And it claims that once we can thereby understand how historic arts worked in and for society art history becomes a significant new tool for objective historical research as never before Media Sense Peter Narváez, Martin Laba, 1986 Essays on folkloristic approaches to popular culture Material Culture Kenneth L. Ames, 1985 Understanding John Rechy María DeGuzmán, 2019-09-19 In this first book length monograph on the Mexican American novelist essayist and playwright John Rechy best known for his debut novel City of Night Mar a DeGuzm n offers a conceptually clear yet aesthetically philosophically and socio politically fine grained analysis of the spectrum of his writing Recipient of PEN Center USA s Lifetime Achievement Award a National Endowment for the Arts Grant ONE Magazine s National Gay and Lesbian Cultural Hero Award the William Whitehead Award for Lifetime Achievement the Luis Leal Award for Excellence in Chicano Latino Literature and the Robert Kirsch Award for Lifetime Achievement Rechy is the author of fifteen novels at least three plays and several volumes of nonfiction He has written for the Nation the New York Review of Books the Los Angeles Times the Village Voice the New York Times and Saturday Review In Understanding John Rechy Mar a DeGuzm n offers a brief biographical overview and then traces the development of Rechy s craft through his major works by calling attention to central issues recurring situations and characters styles and special techniques She examines the complexities of his representation of identity the subjectivity in his male homosexual odyssey and identity quest novels and his experimentation with genre She offers a concise yet intricate analysis of the major organizing paradigms and themes genres modes styles and handling of the gay Chicano's oeuvre The book's guiding analysis pays particular attention to the ways in which Rechy's works function as cultural critique challenging mainstream values in a deep structure manner

Artist, Audience, Accomplice Sydney Stutterheim, 2024-07-15 In Artist Audience Accomplice Sydney Stutterheim introduces a new figure into the history of performance art and related practices of the 1970s and 1980s the accomplice Occupying roles including eyewitness romantic partner studio assistant and documenter this figure is situated between the conventional subject positions of the artist and the audience The unseen and largely unacknowledged contributions of such accomplices exceed those performed by a typical audience because they share in the responsibility for producing artworks that entail potential ethical or legal transgressions Stutterheim analyzes the art of Chris Burden Hannah Wilke Martin Kippenberger and Lorraine O'Grady showing how each cannily developed strategies of shared culpability that evoked questions about the accomplice's various rights and roles In this way Stutterheim argues that the artist's authority is not sovereign total or exclusive but rather fluid and relational By examining the development of an alternative model of participatory art that relies on a network of accomplices Stutterheim radically revises current understandings of artistic agency aesthetic property and acknowledged authorship

The Flamingo in the Garden Colleen J. Sheehy, 2021-12-12 First published in 1996 Documents a wide range of American yard art and distills from it insights into attitudes and values about places homes neighborhoods communities mediating relationships between culture and nature negotiate consumer culture and reusing and individualizing mass produced things

Consumer Culture in Transition Xi Liu, Guilin Liu, Gaoxiang Xu, 2025-12-12 This book offers case studies on the emergence of aesthetic consumption in China that is daily consumption in which aesthetic and spiritual benefits play a dominant role in consumers' decision making The book opens by discussing the rapid economic and cultural development of China as well as the influence of social media in expressing consumer cultural capital It then discusses how the country's new middle class in particular high income urban residents are shifting away from conspicuous consumption towards aesthetic consumption The book then dives into three case studies of aesthetic consumption interior design wine and guqin playing to examine how brands and companies drive consumption by purposely shaping and increasing the target segment's aesthetic sensibilities The authors pose three key research questions 1 How do brands lead consumers to acquire aesthetic tastes which is crucial for the adoption of products positioned on aesthetics 2 How do brands and customers co create aesthetic and spiritual values 3 How do brands maintain and enhance customer relationships even as tastes and preferences upgrade The book then closes by developing theoretical contributions and managerial implications for brands seeking to target these customer segments This book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of marketing brand management consumer culture and China studies

American Art (U.S.),1990 This catalog accompanies an exhibition of the extensive collection of American folk art purchased by the National Museum of American Art in 1986 from collector and author Herbert Waide Hemphill Jr Curator Hartigan gives the reader insight into the alternate aesthetic of folk art and explores its relationship with more traditionally accepted mediums in the fine arts This beautifully produced work includes in addition to the substantial introductory material detailed entries with physical descriptions and provenance of 196 pieces from the collection a substantial bibliography and an index

The South Union, Kentucky, Shakers and Tradition John Brenton Wolford,1992 Understudied and often misrepresented in Shaker literature at the outskirts of the Shaker federation yet leaving a rich corpus of manuscript material the South Union Shakers provide a stellar opportunity to examine tradition in its dynamic mode across perceived or constructed group boundaries The examination of the labor business and commercial aspects of South Union industrial enterprises reveals a common traditional basis between Shaker processes and products and those of their regional neighbors reflecting not a Shaker style of business but a regional one A significant underlying component of the regional continuity lies in the emphasis the Shakers placed on consanguineal bonding for the family traditions the Kentucky converts brought into the South Union community profoundly affected the character and actual shape of the South Union community An extensive and intensive examination of the South Union flatboat peddling trips serves as a core chapter exemplifying their regional affiliations Ultimately the South Union example founded in their business and labor activities is revealed to be a creative manipulation of regional traditions as processed primarily through consanguineal lines Journal of the Society of
