Mongol Mask:

The Mongol Mask David St John,1968 Explore Shamanism Alby Stone,2003 Field Guide to the Birds of Mongolia Gombobaatar Sundev,Christopher Leahy,2019-08-08 There has never been a guide to the birds of Mongolia before and this new field guide will provide full details of every species to be found in the country The guide will follow traditional field guide design with plates arranged opposite the text and maps Tibetan Religious Dances René de Nebesky-Wojkowitz,1976 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series Guide to the Specimens Illustrating the Races of Mankind (anthropology) Exhibited in the Department of Zoology, British Museum (Natural History) ... British Museum (Natural History). Department of Zoology,1921 Mongol Survey,2007 Mongol Costumes Henny Harald Hansen,1950 The Dancing Demons of Mongolia Jan Fontein,1999 The Mongols had practised Shamanism for many centuries but in the 16th century Buddhism made a decisive breakthrough This book examines the finest works of art which remain today from the period subsequent to this conversion to Buddhism

Faces around the World Margo DeMello,2012-02-14 This book provides a comprehensive examination of the human face providing fascinating information from biological cultural and social perspectives Our faces identify who we are not only what we look like and what ethnicities we belong to but they can also identify what religions we practice and what personal ideologies we have This one of a kind A Z reference explores the ways we change beautify and adorn our faces to create our personalities and identities In addition to covering the basics such as the anatomical structure and function of parts of the human face the entries examine how the face is viewed around the world allowing students to easily draw connections and differences between various cultures around the world Readers will learn about a wide variety of topics including identity in different cultures religious beliefs folklore extreme beautification the evil eye scarification facial piercing and facial tattooing masks social views about beauty including cosmetic surgery and makeup how gender class and sexuality play a role in our understanding of the face and skin eye mouth nose and ear diseases and disorders This encyclopedia is ideal for high school and undergraduate students studying anthropology anatomy gender religion and world cultures A Thousand Years of Russian History Sonia Elizabeth Howe,1915 The Soul Enchanted: Mother and son, translated by V. W. Brooks Romain Rolland,1927 The Soul Enchanted: Mother and son Romain Rolland,1927 The Mongols at China's Edge Uradyn E. Bulag,2002-04-03 This important study explores the multifaceted Mongol experience in China past and present Combining insights from anthropology history and postcolonial criticism Uradyn Bulag avoids romanticizing Mongols either as pacified primitive Other or as gallant resistance fighters Rather he portrays them as a people whose communist background and standing in China's northern borderlands has informed their political efforts to harness or confront Chinese nationalistic and political hegemony Breaking new ground in the study of Chinese and Mongol history and ethnicity the author offers a fresh interpretation of China viewed from the perspective of its peripheries and of minority nationalities in relation to the study of Chinese representation and minority self representation The author interrogates received wisdom about Chinese and minority nationalism by unraveling the Chinese discourse and practice of national unity He shows how the discourse was constructed over time through political rituals and sexuality in relation to Mongols and other non Chinese peoples that hark back to Chinese Xiongnu confrontations two millennia ago and Manchu conquest in the 17th and 18th centuries Titular rulers of an autonomous region in which they constitute a minority Mongols face enormous barriers in building and maintaining a socialist Mongolian nationality and a Mongolian language and culture Acknowledging these difficulties Bulag discusses a range of sensitive issues including the imbrication of nation class and ethnicity in the context of Mongol Chinese relations tensions inherent in writing a postrevolutionary history for a socialist nationality and the moral dilemma of building a socialist model with Mongol characteristics Charting the interface between a state centered multinational Chinese polity and a primordial nationalist multiculturalism that aims to manage minority nationalities as cultures he explores Mongol ethnopolitical strategies to preserve their heritage
