Intercourse in Television and Film Lindsay Coleman, Carol Siegel, 2018-03-12 As many critics and theorists have noted non pornographic films documentaries and quality television series have increasingly included explicit sex scenes since the 1990s some of such scenes featuring the performance of actual sex acts The incidence of sex in narratively powerful resonant visual media can no longer be dismissed as a trend What was once an aesthetic weapon in the arsenal of provocateurs is now frequently integrated seamlessly into the mise en scene and exposition of widely viewed and culturally significant films and television series Intercourse in Television and Film The Presentation of Explicit Sex Acts analyzes the aesthetic and narrative contexts for the visual media presentation of the sexual act both those which are non simulated and those which are explicit to that point that their simulation is brought into question by the viewer In this book questions involving the performance choices of actors the framing and editing of the sex act and the director's attempts at integrating sexuality into the overall narrative structure as well as their effects are explored

Medieval Monstrosity and the Female Body Sarah Alison Miller, 2010-07-02 The medieval monster is a slippery construct and its referents include a range of religious racial and corporeal aberrations In this study Miller argues that one incarnation of monstrosity in the Middle Ages the female body exists in special relation to medieval teratology insofar as it resists the customary marginalization that defined most other monstrous groups in the Middle Ages Though medieval maps located the monstrous races on the distant margins of the civilized world the monstrous female body took the form of mother sister wife and daughter It was therefore pervasive proximate and necessary on social sexual and reproductive grounds Miller considers several significant texts representing authoritative discourses on female monstrosity in the Middle Ages the Pseudo Ovidian poem De vetula The Old Woman a treatise on human generation erroneously attributed to Albert the Great De secretis mulierum On the Secrets of Women and Julian of Norwich's Showings Through comparative analysis Miller grapples with the monster's semantic flexibility while simultaneously working towards a composite image of late medieval female monstrosity whose features are stable enough to define Whether this body is discursively constructed as an Ovidian body a medicalized body or a mystical body its corporeal boundaries fail to form properly it is a body out of bounds

The Politics and Aesthetics of Hunger and Disgust Michel Delville, Andrew Norris, 2017-03-27 This study examines how hunger narratives and performances contribute to a reconsideration of neglected or prohibited domains of thinking which only a full confrontation with the body's heterogeneity and plasticity can reveal From literary motif or psychosomatic symptom to revolutionary gesture or existential malady the double crux of hunger and disgust is a powerful force which can define the experience of embodiment Kafka's fable of the Hunger Artist offers a matrix for the fast while its surprising last page revelation introduces disgust as a correlative of abstinence conscious or otherwise Grounded in Kristeva's theory of abjection the figure of the fraught body lurking at the heart of the negative grotesque gathers precision throughout this study where it is employed in a widening series of contexts suicide through overeating starvation as self performance or political resistance the teratological versus the totalitarian the anorexic harboring of death In the process writers and artists as diverse as Herman Melville Percy Bysshe Shelley Christina Rossetti George Orwell Knut Hamsun J M Coetzee Cindy Sherman Pieter Breughel Marina Abramovic David Nebreda Paul McCarthy and others are brought into the discussion By looking at the different acts of visceral affective and ideological resistance performed by the starving body this book intensifies the relationship between hunger and disgust studies while offering insight into the modalities of the dark grotesque which inform the aesthetics and politics of hunger It will be of value to anyone interested in the culture politics and subjectivity of embodiment and scholars working within the fields of disgust studies food studies literary studies cultural theory and media studies
