Mont Pincon:

Mont Pinçon Eric Hunt,2004-02-19 Eric Hunt's Mont Pin on Normandy is the riveting military history of the British advancement into occupied France after D Day In late July 1944 the Allies began their breakout from the Normandy beachheads The Americans in Operation Cobra and the British in Operation Bluecoat VIII and XXX British Corps were to seize the dominating ground running north west from Mont Pin on and exploit towards Vire Mont Pin on is the highest hill in Normandy and is a formidable obstacle as well as magnificent observation post The Germans saw it as essential to their defensive plans for Normandy Three armored and three infantry divisions together with two armored brigades were hurriedly regrouped for the Bluecoat advance into the bocage in which determined German resistance meant that it was 5 August before the mountain itself could be tackled This guide outlines the principal actions of Bluecoat but concentrates on the key players in the assault on Mont Pin on 43rd Wessex Division and 8th Armored Brigade Contemporary accounts including personal diaries as well as more recent personal interviews are also covered The Ecclesiastical History of England and Normandy Ordericus Vitalis,1854 The ecclesiastical history of England and Normandy. Tr., with notes, and the intr. of Guizot, by T. Forester Ordericus Vitalis,1854 Mont Pinçon Eric Hunt,2003 This guide is concerned principally with the capture of the key feature of Mont Pin on it therefore follows 43rd Division and 8 Armoured Brigade from their assembly area near Caumont L Event into the bocage and up the slopes of Mont Pin on But the stories of the other formations are also outlined as the Mont Pin on story is best understood by keeping track of the other actions of Bluecoat Introduction

Master of None Douglas Goddard,2009 Master of None is an autobiography of a retired Army officer from his humble childhood in London and Suffolk farms through the ravages of World War 2 his subsequent civilian career in the Building Industry and latterly his extensive commitment to community service The broad range of his experiences talents and interests together with his engaging and charmingly self deprecating writing style make for a very interesting read forts and other measures in place The scenic seaside town saw a large military buildup with several different army and naval units rotating through the area to man defenses and to train whilst the local Home Guard unit was voted one of the best in the country and was asked to give a radio broadcast on its methods despite some comic accidents along the way Wallsend a largely urban industrial community was home to key wartime industries with its shipbuilding yards including Swan Hunters building and repairing huge numbers of vessels both naval and merchant throughout the war This made the town a significant target for the Luftwaffe and several determined raids were made which inflicted heavy casualties especially during 1941 The area also hosted a large number of heavy and light industrial works which made significant contributions to the war effort The fishermen of the North Shields fishing fleet also played a dangerous role during the war many including one of the authors grandfathers served in the Royal Naval Reserve when supplying fresh fish already a dangerous task to a near starving wartime population was made more dangerous through enemy action The book also looks at the considerable contribution made by the men and women who volunteered for the ARP and Civil Defence Services The heavy raids resulted in great loss of life including the most deadly single attack outside of London when over 100 people were killed when a North Shields shelter took a direct hit in 1941 and the men and women of the emergency services were faced with horrifying scenes the authors other grandfather was a regular fireman and ambulanceman who had a particularly lucky escape when his fire engine was blown into a shell crater during a raid which they had to overcome and work through No member of the community was left untouched by the war whether they were evacuees the authors father was one of them workers servicemen or just civilians struggling to maintain a home in wartime Britain
