of a dedicated amateur primatologist and her adopted Vervet monkey On an East African hunting expedition in 1909 Delia Akeley a forty year old American woman captured a baby female monkey Delia s loneliness in an isolating patriarchal world and her long frustrated desire to adopt a child had motivated her to nurture the animal She named the monkey JT Jr and decided to study her interactions with humans The unique relationship between Delia and JT unlocked Delia s latent talents of research and observation anticipating both Jane Goodall s chimpanzee writings and Margaret Mead s Samoan ethnographies However Delia s love for JT clashed with her husband Carl s obsession to create a temple of African wildlife dioramas at the Museum of Natural History in New York Nursing Carl s broken body and realising their diverging interests pushed Delia into a breakdown in Uganda which led to a savage divorce in Manhattan and the heartbreaking caging of JT in a Washington zoo Carl s death triggered a long battle between Delia and Carl s widow who succeeded in obliterating most of Delia s achievements In Delia Akeley and the Monkey Iain McCalman uses official records and personal documents to build a story of passionate love and hate among women men animals and museums that predates our times but speaks to our present It illuminates much about human animal relations and the tyranny of gender inequality through reinstating an obscured story of a dedicated amateur primatologist    The American Engineer ,1886    American Negligence Cases Theodore Frank Hamilton,Walter James Eagle,1900    The Law Reports of the Incorporated Council of Law Reporting for England and Wales Great Britain.
