Impressionism John I. Clancy, 2003 Defining an artistic era or movement is often a difficult task as one tries to group individualistic expressions and artwork under one broad brush Such is the case with impressionism which culls together the art of a multitude of painters in the mid 19th century including Monet Cezanne Renoir Degas and van Gogh Basically impressionism involved the shedding of traditional painting methods The subjects of art were taken from everyday life as opposed to the pages of mythology and history In addition each artist painted to express feelings of the moment instead of hewing to time honoured standards This description of impressionism obviously is quite broad and can apply to a wide array of styles Nonetheless it remains a very important school in the annals of art Any current or budding art aficionado should become familiar with the impressionist movement and its impact on the art world This book presents a sweeping study of this artistic period from its origins to its manifestations in the works of some of art history's most revered painters Following this overview is a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access through author title and subject indexes

Neo-Impressionist Painters Russell T. Clement, Annick Houzé, 1999-09-30 This reference provides biographical historical and critical information on Neo Impressionist painting and its most significant painters Neo Impressionism also called Divisionism and Pointillism was one of the most innovative and startling late 19th century French avant garde styles Over 2 000 books articles manuscripts and audiovisual materials as well as chronologies biographical sketches and exhibition lists are cited Also provided are both primary and secondary bibliographies for each artist Secondary bibliographies capture details about each artist s life and career relationships with other artists work in various media iconography critical reception and interpretation archival sources and more Art scholars will appreciate the comprehensive bibliographic research contained in this one volume Entries on Neo Impressionism in general on exhibitions and the primary and secondary bibliographies of artists follow an introduction about Neo Impressionism and a Neo Impressionism chronology that spans the years 1881 to 1905 An index of art works and an index of personal names complete the volume

Madame Cézanne Dita Amory, 2014 A new account of C zanne s complex relationship with his wife who served as the subject of some of his most iconic portraits Paul C zanne s 1839 1906 portraits of Hortense Fiquet 1850 1922 his wife and the subject of some of his iconic portraits rank among the most powerful of their kind in French modernism Yet posterity has not been kind to Madame C zanne She was called a distraction blamed for her husband s lackluster landscapes and disdained for her impenetrable expression in the paintings The reality is more complex for while Fiquet may not have been the passion of C zanne s lifetime she was a willing accomplice as model mother of his only son and unwavering partner against all odds Madame C zanne examines this unique relationship as it looks at C zanne the painter draftsman and portraitist Featuring 24 of C zanne s oil portraits of Fiquet and most of the known drawings Madame C zanne both reevaluates with insight and compassion the long held misconceptions about the C zannes unconventional marriage and shows how C zanne s portraits of his wife provide a lens through which to better understand his overall technique Published by The Metropolitan Museum of Art Distributed by Yale University Press Exhibition Schedule The Metropolitan Museum of Art 11 18 14 03 15 15 The Metropolitan Museum of Art Kathryn Calley Galitz, 2016-09-20 This monumental new book is the first to celebrate the greatest and most iconic paintings from the encyclopedic collections of The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York one of the largest most important and most beloved museums in the world This impressive volume s broad sweep of material all from a single museum makes it at once a universal history of painting and the ideal introduction to the iconic masterworks of this world renowned institution More than 1 000 lavish color illustrations and details of 500 masterpiece paintings created over 5 000 years in cultures across the globe are presented chronologically from the dawn of civilization to the present These works represent a grand tour of painting from ancient Egypt and classical antiquity and prized Byzantine and medieval altarpieces to paintings from Asia India Africa and the Americas and and the greatest European and North American masters The Metropolitan Museum of Art includes and introduction and illuminating texts about each artwork written specially for this volume by Kathryn Calley Galitz whose experience as both curator and educator at the Met makes her uniquely qualified European and American artists include Duccio El Greco Raphael Titian Botticelli Bronzino Caravaggio Turner Velázquez Goya Rubens Rembrandt Brueghel Vermeer David Renior Monet Van Gogh Gauguin Cézanne Degas Sargent Homer Matisse Picasso Pollock Jasper Johns and Warhol The artworks are arranged in rough chronological order without regard to geography or culture offering a visual timeline of the history of painting from the earliest examples on pottery jars made over five thousand years ago to canvases on which the paint has barely dried Freed from the constraints imposed by the physical layout of the Museum the paintings resonate anew and this chronological framework reveals unexpected visual affinities among the works For those wishing to experience the unparalleled breadth and depth of the Met's collection or study masterpieces of painting from throughout history this important volume is sure to become a classic cherished by art lovers around the world Making The Met, 1870-2020 (1st revised edition) Andrea Bayer, Laura D. Corey, 2025-10-01 Published to celebrate The Metropolitan Museum of Art's 150th anniversary Making The Met 1870 2020 examines the institution's evolution from an idea that art can inspire anyone who has access to it to one of the most beloved global collections in the world Focusing on key transformational moments this richly illustrated book provides insight into the visionary figures and events that led The Met in new directions Among the many topics explored are the impact of momentous acquisitions the central importance of education and accessibility the collaboration that resulted from international excavations the Museum's role in preserving cultural heritage and its interaction with contemporary art and artists Complementing this fascinating history are more than two hundred works that changed the very way we look at art as well as rarely seen archival and behind the scenes images In the final chapter Met Director Max Hollein offers a meditation on evolving approaches to collecting art from around the world strategies for reaching new and diverse audiences and the role of museums today New York, 1991-07 Arts Digest, 1991 The Hollywood Reporter, 1990 The Inquirer Regional Almanac, 1994 Art Now Gallery Guide, 1990-06 American Art Directory, 1993 The biographical material formerly included in the directory is issued separately as Who's who in American art 1936 37
