The methodology of the study of the history of political thought is an area of study which has occupied my interests for nearly a decade I was introduced to the subject in University College Swansea My teachers there provided me with an excellent grounding in political studies I am particularly indebted to Bruce Haddock Peter Nicholson and W H Greenleaf Professor Greenleaf was kind enough to supply me with a copy of his bibliography and copies of two of his unpublished papers I continued to pursue my interest in methodology at the London School of Economics and Political Science I am indebted to Ken Minogue and Robert Orr who taught me there My greatest debt is to Dr Joseph Femia of the University of Liverpool who devoted a great deal of time to considering the arguments presented here His criticisms and suggestions for improvement proved to be invaluable I would also like to thank Alan Ryan for his general comments and encouraging advice It would be remiss of me if I neglected to express my gratitude to Dewi Beynon who was my first teacher of politics The research for this project was carried out in the following places The British Library of Political Science London The Sidney Jones Library University of Liverpool The National Library of Scotland Edinburgh The Main Library University of Edinburgh The Arts and Social Science Library University College Cardiff and the Bodleian Library Oxford
