Aquinas and the Ship of Theseus Christopher M. Brown, 2005-05-15 Thomas Aquinas has always been viewed as a highly important figure in Western Civilization and the chief philosopher of Roman Catholicism In recent decades there has been a renewed interest in Aquinas thought as scholars have been exploring the relevance of his thought to contemporary philosophical problems The book will be of interest not only to historians of medieval philosophy but to philosophers who work on problems associated with the nature of material objects Because human beings are typically understood to be a kind of material object the book will also be of interest to philosophers working on topics in the philosophy of religion philosophy of mind and the philosophy of human nature Although the work contains the kinds of details that are necessary for a work of historical scholarship it is written in a manner that makes it approachable for undergraduate students in philosophy and so it would be a welcomed addition to any university library

Reading and Experience: A Philosophical Investigation Alexander Samely, 2024-06-10 This text is the first comprehensive attempt in decades to integrate reading into the philosophical discussion of the synthesis of experience more generally It offers a comprehensive critique of three disciplinary approaches to reading philosophical literary and empirical neuroscientific while developing an innovative and unifying phenomenological account It discusses texts from a variety of contemporary and historical contexts It is inclusive treating non fiction alongside fiction literary art alongside everyday texts and narrative alongside thematic discourse It addresses all reading practices found today casual and unreflective reading close and scholarly reading with re reading the analysis of literary art and sacred text study and memorization In the current intellectual landscape the book is unique in bringing all these aspects together in a philosophically coherent discussion The book provides a critique of philosophical accounts of text meaning and linguistic experience by philosophers from Husserl and Ingarden to Sartre Merleau Ponty Arendt Gadamer and Derrida and examines the positions of contemporary naturalizing phenomenologists such as Varela and Thompson Also treated are neuroscientists such as Dehaene and theorists of consciousness such as Kintsch Flanagan and Dennett Finally this volume engages with psychological linguistic structuralist theory of mind and experiential approaches in literary studies from B hler and Hamburger to Fludernik Herman and Kuzmi ov It appeals to students and researchers working in these fields Interest
