Markets Of Dispossession:

Markets of Dispossession Julia Elyachar, 2005-10-26 A case study of economic development in Cairo that sheds light on issues of agency and empowerment in the age of neoliberal globalization Speculative Markets Kristin

Peterson, 2014-08-25 In this unprecedented account of the dynamics of Nigeria's pharmaceutical markets Kristin Peterson connects multinational drug company policies oil concerns Nigerian political and economic transitions the circulation of pharmaceuticals in the Global South Wall Street machinations and the needs and aspirations of individual Nigerians Studying the pharmaceutical market in Lagos Nigeria she places local market social norms and credit and pricing practices in the broader context of regional transnational and global financial capital Peterson explains how a significant and formerly profitable African pharmaceutical market collapsed in the face of U S monetary policies and neoliberal economic reforms and she illuminates the relation between that collapse and the American turn to speculative capital during the 1980s In the process she reveals the mutual constitution of financial speculation in the drug industry and the structural adjustment plans that the IMF imposed on African nations Her book is a sobering ethnographic analysis of the effects of speculation and development as they reverberate across markets and continents and play out in everyday interpersonal transactions of the Lagos pharmaceutical market Anthropological Notebooks ,2006 Sparking a Worldwide Energy Revolution Kolya

Abramsky, 2010 The earth's not dying it's being killed Only a movement for renewable energy will save it Privatization Becky Mansfield, 2008-04-28 This groundbreaking collection offers the first systematic analysis of neo liberal privatization Rich case studies reveal both the pivotal role that privatization plays in neoliberalism and innovative opportunities for challenging neo liberal dominance Leading scholars in the field shed new light on how property is created justified questioned and contested Investigating the disciplinary regulatory dimensions of privatization the authors cover topics as diverse as land reform fishing rights and product labels The anthology questions the dominant view of property as ownership by demonstrating various ways that it is practiced and the surprising outcomes contained in this diversity Contemporary privatization is remaking nature society as property Privatization innovates and proliferates new forms of property such as patents for genetic information markets for water and tradable credits for polluting In so doing privatization transforms the relationships we have with ourselves each other and the natural world New Perspectives on Turkey ,2007 Arab

Studies Journal ,2005 The Journal of Markets & Morality ,2007 Cambridge Anthropology ,2007 The New American Farmer Laura-Anne Minkoff-Zern, 2019-11-12 An examination of Latino immigrant farmers as they transition from farmworkers to farm owners that offers a new perspective on racial inequity and sustainable farming Although the majority of farms in the United States have US born owners who identify as white a growing number of new farmers are immigrants many of them from Mexico who originally came to the United States looking for work in agriculture In The New American Farmer Laura Anne Minkoff Zern explores the experiences of Latino immigrant farmers as they transition from farmworkers to farm owners offering a new perspective on racial inequity and sustainable farming She finds that many of these new farmers rely on farming practices from their home countries including growing multiple crops simultaneously using integrated pest management maintaining small scale production and employing family labor most of which are considered alternative farming techniques in the United States Drawing on extensive interviews with farmers and organizers Minkoff Zern describes the social economic and political barriers immigrant farmers must overcome from navigating USDA bureaucracy to racialized exclusion from opportunities She discusses among other topics the history of discrimination against farm laborers in the United States the invisibility of Latino a farmers to government and universities new farmers sense of agrarian and racial identity and the future of the agrarian class system Minkoff Zern argues that immigrant farmers with their knowledge and experience of alternative farming practices are despite a range of challenges actively and substantially contributing to the movement for an ecological and sustainable food system Scholars and food activists should take notice

The Indian Journal of Agricultural Economics ,1946 Vols include Proceedings of the conference of the Indian Society of Agricultural Economics Movements Against Markets Heather L. Williams,1997 Rethinking Economic Change in India Tirthankar Roy,2005-05-19 As author of the hugely influential The Economic History of India 1857 1947 Tirthankar Roy has established himself as the leading contemporary economic historian of India Here Roy turns his attention to labour and livelihood and the nature of economic change in the Subcontinent This book covers economic history of modern India rural labour labour intensive industrialization women and industrialization Challenging the prevailing wisdom on Indian economic growth that it is bound up with Marxian postcolonial class analysis Roy formulates a new view Commercialization surplus labour and uncertainty are seen as equally important and the end result reconciles the increasingly opposed view of economists and historians Economic and Political Weekly ,2006-03 Anthropology News ,2008 Free Markets Deep in the Heart of Texas Jane E. Larson,2000 Informal Market Worlds Peter Mörténböck,Helge Mooshammer,Teddy Cruz,2015 The essays in the reader debate the scope of informality for generating economic social and political change From discussing the conceptual challenges behind the development of a new political economy based on the philosophical legal and social architecture of other markets to exploring how changing global relations are already initiating new forms of urban practice these analyses provide a thorough understanding of what is at stake in the new geography of Informal Market Worlds With contributions by Teddy Cruz Keith Hart Jiang Jun Lawrence Liang MAP Office Vyjayanthi Rao Ananya Roy Saskia Sassen AbdouMaliq Simone Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Ignacio Valero Matias Viegner and others The accompanying atlas brings together more than 80 case studies on the spatial and visual culture of informal markets from around the world

Yabar David Lipset,2017-03-27 This book analyses the dual alienations of a coastal group rural men the Murik of Papua New Guinea David Lipset argues that Murik men engage in a Bakhtinian dialogue voicing their alienation from both their own indigenous masculinity as well as from the postcolonial modernity in which they find themselves adrift Lipset analyses young men's elusive expressions of desire in courtship narratives marijuana discourse and mobile phone use in which generational tensions play out together with their disaffection from the state He also borrows from Lacanian psychoanalysis in discussing how men's dialogue of dual alienation appears in folk theater in material substitutions most notably in the replacement of outrigger canoes by fiberglass boats as well as in rising sea levels and the looming possibility of resettlement

Procedure and methods of target market selection and risk assessment on the example of SMA AG Michael Kemmer, Torsten Ehnert, 2012-07-06 Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1.0 University of Applied Sciences Berlin language English abstract Globalisation or going global at the moment echoes throughout the land But very often it is used as flowery phrase some use it to express their fear of a more and more internationalised and fast changing world others use it to find excuses why they do not perform good any more But the truth behind it is deeper as one could think Let us have a look at the following quotation National champions are a phase out model Neelie Kroes European Commissioner for Competition This phrase stands for itself Large companies usually have to go international or they can not participate in worldwide emerging or developing markets and can not compete in the long term If a company is a national niche player it does not have to go international compulsory but if it wants to grow more than it is possible at its home market it has to choose new target markets This assignment deals with this more and more important topic of going international and especially with the target market selection using the example of SMA Solar Technology AG SMA way of entering the United States solar market

Globalization, Culture, and the Limits of the Market Stephen Cullenberg, Prasanta K. Pattanaik, 2004 This collection of papers discusses critical issues that have often been at the center of social debates in recent years Economists and philosophers discuss such issues as the limitations of markets as an instrument of decision making in a society globalization and culture the foundational principles for public policy the criteria for the allocation of human organs and the paradox of scarcity despite affluence in modern societies
