CALVINISM REVISITED David A Swincer, 2020-04-05 In seeking to promote and support the Calvinist position Benjamin Warfield sought to champion the cause by making some rather extravagant statements He who believes in God without reserve and is determined free will that God shall be God to him in all his thinking feeling willing in the entire compass of his life activities intellectual moral spiritual throughout all his individual social religious relations is by the force of that strictest of all logic which presides over the outworking of principles into thought and life by the very necessity of the case a Calvinist This can only be described as a ridiculously elitist statement To believe in God in the terms described does not even remotely require a person to be a Calvinist Likewise the following quote from Warfield is equally elitist in the extreme Religion sic in its substance is a sense of absolute dependence on God and reaches the height of its conception only when this sense of absolute dependence is complete and all pervasive in the thought and feeling and life But when this stage is reached we have just Calvinism Sadly this statement is arrogant nonsense Is this position absolute dependence on God etc not true of EVERY Christian It is this arrogant approach that raises a serious concern of an elite theology above the Scriptures Such statements demand that a corrective be given and hence this book

Building an Opportunity Society Lewis D. Solomon, 2014-09-04 Twenty first century US policymakers face a great challenge How can federal government help more people achieve the American dream Specifically how can we provide greater opportunities for less prosperous individuals enabling them to succeed through hard work on their merits and take increased responsibility for their lives Lewis D Solomon sees this as the challenge of our time He seeks to thread the fine public policy needle between social democratic efforts to perfect the world and those who negatively view public sector programs Based on the premise that capitalism is not inherently unjust and defective and American capitalism's structural features do not inexorably thwart opportunity Building an Opportunity Society offers the possibility of more limited carefully structured cost effective empirically verified federal policies and programs Solomon first provides the background and context of many existing domestic challenges and problems that the current and proposed federal policies and programs seek to address He then analyzes the federal safety net that keeps Americans from poverty and helps reduce income inequality Finally he presents a lifecycle analysis of current federal policies and programs preventive and remedial designed as part of the Entitlement State but if restructured could facilitate the building of an Opportunity Society Solomon challenges policymakers to take a fresh look at how best to achieve society's goals for all citizens
