Marriages and Families Karen Seccombe,Rebecca L. Warner,2004 In this fresh more structural alternative to other texts for the marriage and family course Seccombe and Warner provide a comprehensive look at close relationships and the family in just 15 chapters Examining close relationships and families by placing them in social context the authors offer a unique emphasis on the structural and relational aspects of the family with a focus on family resilience The text weaves together a macro view social structural analysis of close relationships with the macro an individualist view The authors demonstrate the interaction of theory and methodology in family studies in Chapter 2 and blend cutting edge research and practical applications throughout Among the highlights of this first edition are the exceptionally thorough exploration of the topics of singlehood and cohabitation in Chapter 7 and the unique six chapter core 8 13 that focuses on all aspects of parenthood and the challenges and crises that families face today The authors emphasis on family resilience and how families can be strengthened is reflected in the Constructing Strong Families boxes that appear throughout the text These features encourage students to apply groundbreaking research on what makes a family strong to their own families and in the concluding chapter Looking Ahead Helping Families Flourish which examines the factors that successful families regardless of ethnicity culture or social class consistently exhibit Marriage and the Family David H. Olson, John Defrain, 1997-01

Marriages and Families Mary Ann Schwartz, BarBara Marliene Scott, 2003 Taking an historical cross cultural and global approach this book focuses on the link between social structure and the everyday lives of people's diverse experiences of marriages families and intimate relationships It shows how contemporary families go well beyond the traditional heterosexual two parent white middle class family and heterosexual legally sanctioned marriage challenges the assumption that one culture's way of doing things is the natural or right way shows how marriage and family life have changed historically over time and from place to place and how political and economic globalization impacts families worldwide Features extensive boxed material accompanied by questions for personal reflection Marriages and Families Over Time Ways of Studying and Explaining Marriages and Families Understanding Gender Its Influence In Intimate Relationships The Many Faces of Love Dating Coupling and Mate Selection Sexuality and Intimate Relationships Nonmarital Lifestyles The Marriage Experience Reproduction and Parenting Evolving Work and Family Structures Violence and Abuse The Process of Uncoupling Divorce in the United States Remarriage and Remarried Families Families in Later Life Marriages and Families in the Twenty first Century U S and World Trends For anyone interested in marriage and family dynamics including individuals counselors nurses social workers home economists etc

Study Guide Plus Sociology BarBara Marliene Scott, 2000-09 Marriage, Family and Intimate Relations Ronald G. Stover, 1993 Study Guide for Lamanna and Riedmann's Marriages and Families

Paul O'Brien, 2000 The Journal of Home Economics, 1927 The Practice of Family Therapy Suzanne Midori Hanna, Derek A. Ball, 2024-12-10 Now in its sixth edition The Practice of Family Therapy comes at a time when traditional approaches to psychotherapy have given way to multidimensional strategies that best serve the needs of diverse groups who are grappling with the many challenges unique to family therapy practice With expanded coverage of different models along with new developments in evidence based and postmodern practices this integrative textbook bridges the gap between science and systemic relational approaches as it guides the reader through each stage of family therapy Part I lays the groundwork by introducing the first second and third generation models of family therapy teaching the reader to integrate different elements from these models into a systemic structure of practice Part II explores the practical application of these models including scripts for specific interventions and newly updated clinical examples that highlight how to effectively work with diverse client populations of today Students will learn how to make connections between individual symptoms and cutting edge family practices to respond successfully to cases involving substance abuse trauma grief depression suicide risk violence LGBTQIA families and severely mentally ill clients and their families This newly updated and streamlined edition includes fresh information on working with LGBTQIA families and on the family as a resource for suicidal members and it also includes new discussion of models such as emotion focused couple therapy and internal family systems This text also encourages students to think more broadly about community connections as important resources for clients such as chosen families and cultural identities that affect one's sense of belonging in relationships. With study guides for each model and a glossary to review main concepts this text is a comprehensive and accessible guide for students and practitioners. Aligned with the knowledge and content statements of the Association of Marital and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards AMFTRB this textbook will be key reading for graduate students who are preparing for the national licensing exam in marriage and family therapy. Marriage and the Family David H. Olson, John DeFrain, 1997-01

The Catholic Marriage Manual

George Anthony Kelly, 1958 Marriage and Family Experience Strong, Bryan Strong, Christine DeVault, 1995 A comprehensive unbiased examination of America's diverse marriage and family systems. Contains the latest research and increased coverage of diverse racial and ethnic groups. Includes material on popular culture and the media. Ch 1 a cross cultural feature called Other Places and a full color format throughout and the text has been shortened to 16. Marriages and Families Nijole Vaicaitis Benokraitis, 1996 This textbook introduces students to the study of marriage and the family in ways to which they can easily relate. Giving equal attention to people of all racial ethnic and other societal groups the author shows students that as families continue to change they have more and more choices but that those choices are also subject to often serious constraints on both the macro and micro level. The author's approach encourages students to think for themselves and practical guidelines in every chapter encourage them to go beyond thought to action to become part of the effort to resolve some of the crucial issues that confront all 21st century families. Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997
