The Marrying Kind? Mary Bernstein, Verta Taylor, 2013-05-16 As the fight for same sex marriage rages across the United States and lesbian and gay couples rush to marriage license counters the goal of marriage is still fiercely questioned within the LGBT movement Rarely has an objective so central to a social movement's political agenda been so controversial within the movement itself While antigay forces work to restrict marriage to one man and one woman lesbian and gay activists are passionately arguing about the desirability viability and social consequences of same sex marriage The Marrying Kind is the first book to draw on empirical research to examine these debates and how they are affecting marriage equality campaigns The essays in this volume analyze the rhetoric strategies and makeup of the LGBT social movement organizations pushing for same sex marriage and address the dire predictions of some LGBT commentators that same sex marriage will spell the end of queer identity and community Case studies from California Connecticut Massachusetts New Jersey Oklahoma Vermont and Canada illuminate the complicated politics of same sex marriage making clear that the current disagreements among LGBT activists over whether marriage is conforming or transformative are far too simplistic Instead the impact of the marriage equality movement is complex and often contradictory neither fully assimilationist nor fully oppositional Contributors Ellen Ann Andersen U of Vermont Mary C Burke U of Vermont Adam Isaiah Green U of Toronto Melanie Heath McMaster U Ontario Kathleen E Hull U of Minnesota Katrina Kimport U of California San Francisco Jeffrey Kosbie Katie Oliviero U of Colorado Boulder Kristine A Olsen Timothy A Ortyl Arlene Stein Rutgers U Amy L Stone Trinity U Nella Van Dyke U of California Merced
