This original book explores American artists' perceptions of Spain during this period of turmoil and demonstrates how their responses to Spanish art helped to answer emerging complex questions about American national identity. M. Elizabeth Boone focuses on works by Thomas Eakins, Mary Cassatt, William Merritt Chase, John Singer Sargent, Robert Henri, and other American artists who traveled to Spain to study the achievements of such great masters as Murillo, Velázquez, and Goya. The resulting American paintings, some well known and others now largely forgotten, provide intriguing insights not only into the 19th century American struggle to define itself as an imperial power but also into the relations between the United States and the Spanish-speaking world today    Accessions List University of London. Library, 1939    Cather Studies, Volume 13 Cather Studies, 2021-07 Willa Cather wrote about the places she knew, including Nebraska, New Mexico, New York, and Virginia. Often forgotten among these essential locations has been Pittsburgh. During the ten years Pittsburgh was her home (1896-1906) Cather worked as an editor, journalist, teacher, and freelance writer. She mixed with all sorts of people and formed friendships, both ephemeral and lasting. She published extensively and not just profiles and reviews but also a collection of poetry, April Twilights, and more than thirty short stories, including several collected in The Troll Garden that are now considered masterpieces. A Death in the Desert, The Sculptor's Funeral, A Wagner Matinee, and Paul's Case. During extended working vacations through 1916 she finished four novels in Pittsburgh. Cather Studies, Volume 13 explores the myriad ways that these crucial years in Pittsburgh shaped Cather's writing career and the artistic, professional, and personal connections she made there. With contributions from fourteen well-known Cather scholars, this collection of essays recognizes the importance Pittsburgh played in Cather's life and work and deepens our appreciation of how her art examines and elucidates the human experience    List of Water Colours and Drawings in the Collection of the Hispanic Society of America Hispanic Society of America, 1926    News Notes of California Libraries California State Library, 1938 Vols for 1971 include annual reports
