Marx On Globalization:

Marx on Globalisation Karl Marx,2001 Globalisation is not a new phenomenon but on the eve of the millennium the processes that constitute the phenomenon of globalization are intensifying and being experienced in new ways This book looks at the writings of Marx which are relevant to these current issues Globalization and the Critique of Political Economy Lucia Pradella,2014-11-27 The nature of the contemporary global political economy and the significance of the current crisis are a matter of wide ranging intellectual and political debate which has contributed to a revival of interest in Marx s critique of political economy This book interrogates such a critique within the broader framework of the history of political economy and offers a new appreciation of its contemporary relevance A distinctive feature of this study is its use of the new historical critical edition of the writings of Marx and Engels MEGA2 their partially unpublished notebooks in particular The sheer volume of this material forces a renewed encounter with Marx It demonstrates that the international sphere and non European societies had an increasing importance in his research which developed the scientific elements elaborated by Marx s predecessors This book questions widespread assumptions that the nation state was the starting point for the analysis of development It explores the international foundations of political economy from mercantilism to Adam Smith and David Ricardo and to Hegel and investigates how the understanding of the international political economy informs the interpretations of history to which it gave rise The book then traces the developments of Marx s critique of political economy from the early 1840s to Capital Volume 1 and shows that his deepening understanding of the laws of capitalist uneven and combined development allowed him to recognise the growth of a world working class Marx s work thus offers the necessary categories to develop an alternative to methodological nationalism and Eurocentrism grounded in a critique of political economy This book is essential reading for anyone interested in the development of Marx s thought and in the foundations of International Political Economy Historical Materialism and Globalization Mark Rupert,Hazel Smith,2002

with the proposal of the new philosophical concept of multiple universality in the face of the world culture the author conducts an in depth analysis and discussion of many facets of the relationship between Confucianism Confucian traditions and the modern world culture It has a focused theme and a strong sense of contemporaneity and responds to the current challenges confronting Confucianism from the perspective of modern culture The chapters not only elucidate the Confucian position in the face of challenges of global ethics dialogues on human rights and ecological civilization but also provide a modern interpretation of classical Confucian ideas on education politics and ritual politics as well as an analysis of the development of modern Confucianism All in all this work is a comprehensive exposition of the Confucian values and their modern implications Marx, Lenin, and the Revolutionary Experience Paul LeBlanc,2014-06-03 Marx Lenin and the Revolutionary Experience offers a fresh look at Communism both the bad and good and also touches on anarchism Christian theory conservatism liberalism Marxism and more to argue for the enduring relevance of Karl Marx and V I Lenin as democratic revolutionaries It examines the Red Decade of the 1930s and the civil rights movement and the New Left of the 1960s in the United States as well Studying the past to grapple with issues of war and terrorism exploitation hunger ecological crisis and trends toward deadening de spiritualization the book shows how the revolutionaries of the past are still relevant to today s struggles It offers a clearly written and carefully reasoned thematic discussion of globalization Marxism Christianity and religion in general Communism the history of the USSR and US radical and social movements

Containing Community Greg Bird,2016-09-21 Analyzes the role of community in the writings of Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy Community has been both celebrated and demonized as a fortress that shelters and defends its members from being exposed to difference Instead of abandoning community as an antiquated model of relationships that is ill suited for our globalized world this book turns to the writings of Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy in search for ways to rethink community in an open and inclusive manner Greg Bird argues that a central piece of this task is found in how each philosopher rearticulates community not as something that is proper to those who belong and improper to those who are excluded or where inclusion is based on one's share in common property. We must return to the forgotten dimension of sharing not as a sharing of things that we can contain and own but as a process that divides us up and shares us out in community with one another. This book traces this problem through a wide array of fields ranging from biopolitics, communitarianism, existentialism, phenomenology, political economy, radical philosophy and social theory.

Marxism and World Politics Alexander Anievas, 2010 Brings together internationally distinguished interdisciplinary scholars to examine recent developments in Marxist approaches to world politics and to provide a general review of the key debates and issues.

Rethinking Development Ronaldo Munck, 2021-05-17 Development and underdevelopment are the main determinants of life chances worldwide arguably more so than social class. Marxism as the underlying theory for social revolution needs to have a clear understanding of the dynamics of development and social progress. Exploring the intersection of Marxism and development this book looks at Marx's original conception of capitalist development and his later engagement with under developed Russia. The author also reviews Lenin's early critique of the Russian populists rejection of capitalism compared with his later analysis of imperialism as a brake on development in the non European world. The book then considers Rosa Luxemburg who arguably provides a bridge between these theorists and those that follow with her analysis of imperialism as a necessity for capitalism to incorporate non capitalist lands. Turning then to the non European world the author examines the Latin American dependency theories, the post development school and the recent indigenous development theories advanced by Andean Marxism. Finally Munck addresses the relationship between globalization and development. Does this relationship suggest that it has not been capitalism but a lack of capitalism that has led to under development?

Globalization and the Harmonization of Law Jarrod Wiener, 1999 Debate about globalization has raised some serious questions about the viability of the state. Jarrod Wiener argues here that there is a danger of making generalizations that the state has lost authority across a range of sovereignty issues.

Global Capitalism in Crisis Murray E. G. Smith, 2011

Heterodox Macroeconomics Jonathan P. Goldstein, Michael G. Hillard, 2009-06-02

This book focuses on an integrated heterodox approach to the original contributions of Keynes, Marx and early institutionalists featuring an international set of authors from the US, the UK, Japan and Korea.

Work and Productivity in the Era of Globalization Dejo Adepoju, Abdulrahman, Sulaiman Y. Balarabe, Kura, Sheikh D. Abubakar, 2012

Crosscurrents Mark William Charlton, Paul Barker, 2002 Turn your classroom into a forum for debate and discussion with the fourth edition of Crosscurrents. With its lively and effective yes/no debate format, Crosscurrents continues to provide students with a stimulating collection of essays that encourages the development of critical thought and analytic skills involving major issues of the day. The authors frame issues with well written introductory essays and postscripts to further enhance the experience. Crosscurrents addresses major political issues in Canada and elsewhere and contains debates on hot topics such as aboriginal self government, changes to the electoral system, health care, school choice and many more.
