Marxian Christian Utopianism:

Marxian and Christian Utopianism John Joseph Marsden, 1991      The Westminster Dictionary of Christian Theology Alan Richardson, John Bowden, 1983-01-01 The Westminster Dictionary of Christian Theology is an important reference for any pastor scholar or student of theology. The articles are clearly written, historically informative and conceptually clarifying. The entries are arranged alphabetically for ease of use.      Utopia & Revolution Melvin Jonah Lasky, The most comprehensive study of ideology and utopia since Karl Mannheim's work of the 1930s. Utopia and Revolution can be understood as turning classical political theory on its head or perhaps inside out. Instead of the usual summary of how English radical theologies contributed to the revolutionary process, Lasky shows how such political theology of the mid seventeenth century became the backbone of the natural history of revolutionary disasters. In a remarkable feat of scholarship in intellectual history, Lasky charts the course of this historic entanglement over some five turbulent centuries of Western history. In so doing, he traces the ideological extension of the human personality through the writings of political theorists, philosophers, poets and historians.

Christianity and Culture Santosh Thomas, 2005      The Annihilation of Hell Nicholas Ansell, 2014-07-08 This work analyses and evaluates Jürgen Moltmann's model of universal salvation and its relation to his understanding of the redemption or eschatological fulfilment of time. For Jürgen Moltmann, Hell is the nemesis of Hope. The Annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell's annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann's distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ's descent into Godforsakenness. The negation of Hell and the fulfilment of history are inseparable. Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann's thinking, especially his zimzum doctrine of creation, his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature/grace relationship, this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honour human freedom, promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation. As well as providing an in-depth exposition of Moltmann's ideas, The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalise our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorising of Scripture and the spirituality of existence. If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes, the confrontation between Hell and hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the centre of theology but at the heart of life itself.

Marx, Lenin, and the Revolutionary Experience Paul LeBlanc, 2014-06-03 Marx, Lenin and the Revolutionary Experience offers a fresh look at Communism, both the bad and good, and also touches on anarchism, Christian theory, conservatism, liberalism, Marxism, and more, to argue for the enduring relevance of Karl Marx and V. I. Lenin as democratic revolutionaries. It examines the Red Decade of the 1930s and the civil rights movement and the New Left of the 1960s in the United States as well. Studying the past to grapple with issues of war and terrorism, exploitation, hunger, ecological crisis and trends toward deadening de-spiritualization, the book shows how the revolutionaries of the past are still relevant to today's struggles. It offers a clearly written and carefully reasoned thematic discussion of globalization Marxism Christianity and religion in general Communism the history of the USSR and US radical and social movements     The Utopian Dilemma in the Western Political Imagination John Farrell, 2023-03-31 In this volume John Farrell shows that political utopias societies with laws and customs designed to short circuit the foibles of human nature for the benefit of our collective existence have a perennial opponent the honor based culture of aristocracy that dominated most of the world from ancient times into early modernity and whose status based competitive psychology persists to the present day While utopias aim at equality the heroic imperative defends the need for personal and collective dignity It asks the utopian Do we really want to live in a world without struggle without heroes and without the stories they create Because the utopian dilemma pits essential values against each other equity versus freedom dignity versus justice few who confront it can simply take sides Rather the dilemma itself has been a generative stimulus for classic authors from Plato and Thomas More to George Orwell and Aldous Huxley Farrell follows their struggles with the utopian dilemma and with each other providing a deepened understanding of the moral and emotional dynamics of the western political imagination Introduction Chapter 8 Chapter 9 Chapter 15 Chapter 16 and Conclusion of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Utopian Studies ,1994     John Gray and the Problem of Utopia John Hoffman, 2008 This book explores the work of John Gray controversial and widely read contemporary philosopher This comprehensive volume links a critique of Gray's views on Marxism humanism and the Enlightenment as well as his deep pessimism with his position that attempts to tackle the core of issues like globalization and multiculturalism are hopelessly utopian Challenging these and other assumptions in Gray's work in a clear and accessible way John Hoffman focuses his criticism on the philosopher's traditionalist and problematic conception of utopia in the modern world

A Requiem for Karl Marx Frank E. Manuel, 1997-09 As Karl Marx the icon has fallen along with so many communist regimes we are left with the mystery of Karl Marx the man the complexities of a life that has profoundly affected millions A Requiem for Karl Marx is Frank Manuel's searching meditation on that life a learned and elegantly written engagement with the man and his work Manuel gives us a psychological portrait rendered with sympathy and critical detachment a probing look at the connections between the private drama of Marx's life and his revolutionary ideas Manuel pursues these connections from Marx's adolescence and education in Trier through his university studies marriage to a German baroness and early affiliation with French and German radical groups Here we see Marx in moments of youthful rapture in periods of despair in maneuvers of blatant hypocrisy in outbursts of self mockery We follow his involuted response to his status as a converted Jew observe the psychic toll of debilitating bouts of illness and witness the shattering effects of his aggressive often brutal conduct toward friend and foe alike Manuel analyzes in intricate detail the central role of Marx's enduring relationship with Friedrich Engels which appears to transcend the bounds of friendship and his changing behavior toward his wife Jenny the neurotic and tragic figure who shared his dismal London exile

What becomes clear in this narrative is the link between Marx's personal life and his ideas about class struggle revolutionary strategy and utopia as well as the impact of his personal vision and political tactics on the movements that followed him down to our day   Values in Conflict: Christianity, Marxism, Psychoanalysis, Existentialism Victor Comerchero, 1970

The Marxism of Marx John Lewis, 1972    An Explanation and Criticism of the Doctrines and Proposals of Scientific Socialism James Edward Le Rossignol, 1921    From Ideology to Utopia: the Marxist Careers of Ernst Fischer and Roger Garaudy Charles Joseph McClain, 1971    Realism Versus Utopianism? Ruurd Veldhuis, 1975    Political Christianity

David McLellan, 1997 This introductory work focuses on the historical which attempts to situate Christianity in a specific context It also looks at case studies in different parts of the world and deals with past and present politics in Christianity

Socialism, 1915    Marxist-Christian Interpenetrations Dale Vree, 1972    Elementary Economics Charles Manfred Thompson, 1919    The Encyclopedia Americana, 1927
