Stalin,2008-03-01 This translation of Marxism and Problems of Linguistics is a reprint of the English language text published in Moscow in 1954 This edition also includes notes from the 1971 Chinese edition Marxism and the Philosophy of Language V. N. Voloshinov,1986 V N Volosinov s important work first published in Russian in 1929 had to wait a generation for recognition This first paperback edition of the English translation will be capital for literary theorists philosophers linguists psychologists and many others Volosinov is out to undo the old disciplinary boundaries between linguistics rhetoric and poetics in order to construct a new kind of field semiotics or textual theory Ladislav Matejka and I R Titunik have provided a new preface to discuss Volosinov in relation to the great resurgence of interest in all the writing of the circle of Mikhail Bakhtin A Marxist Philosophy of Language Jean-Jacques Lecercle,2006-08-01 The purpose of this book is to give a precise meaning to the formula English is the language of imperialism Understanding that statement involves a critique of the dominant views of language both in the field of linguistics the book has a chapter criticising Chomsky s research programme and of the philosophy of language the book has a chapter assessing Habermas s philosophy of communicative action The book aims at constructing a Marxist philosophy of language embodying a view of language as a social historical material and political phenomenon Since there has never been a strong tradition of thinking about language in Marxism the book provides an overview of the question of Marxism in language from Stalin s pamphlet to Voloshinov s book taking in an essay by Pasolini and it seeks to construct a number of concepts for a Marxist philosophy of language The book belongs to the tradition of Marxist critique of dominant ideologies It should be particularly useful to those who in the fields of language study literature and communication studies have decided that language is not merely an instrument of communication Concerning Marxism in Linguistics Joseph Stalin,1950 Marxism and Problems of Linguistics J. Brandist,G. Tihanov,2000-02-11 This volume brings together nine essays by established and new scholars from Russia Britain and North America to explore the historical contexts and current relevance of the work of the Bakhtin Circle for social theory philosophy history and linguistics The Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics R. E. Asher,J. M. Y. Simpson,1994 Language and Materialism Rosalind Coward,John Ellis,2016-11-18 First published in 1977 this book presents a comprehensive and lucid guide through the labyrinths of semiology and structuralism perhaps the most significant systems of study to have been developed in the twentieth century. The authors describe the early presuppositions of structuralism and semiology which claim to be a materialist theory of language based on Saussure's notion of the sign. They show how these presuppositions have been challenged by work following Althusser's development of the Marxist theory of ideology and by Lacan's re-reading of Freud. The book explains how the encounter of two disciplines, psychoanalysis and Marxism, on the ground of their common problem, language, has produced a new understanding of society and its subjects. It produces a critical re-examination of the traditional Marxist theory of ideology together with the concepts of sign and identity of the subject.

Communism. Selections from Marx, Engels, Kropotkin, Lenin, Stalin, Trotsky Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, Peter Kropotkin, Vladimir Lenin, Joseph Stalin, Leon Trotsky, 2025-03-26

Communism is a left wing to far left sociopolitical philosophical and economic ideology within the socialist movement whose goal is the establishment of a communist society, a socioeconomic order centered around common ownership of the means of production, distribution and exchange that allocates products to everyone in the society. Communist society also involves the absence of private property, social classes, money and the state. Communists often seek a voluntary state of self-governance but disagree on the means to this end. This reflects a distinction between a more libertarian approach of communization, revolutionary spontaneity and workers self-management and a more vanguardist or Communist party driven approach through the development of a constitutional socialist state followed by the withering away of the state. As one of the main ideologies on the political spectrum, communism is placed on the left wing alongside socialism and communist parties and movements have been described as radical left or far left.
