California. Court of Appeal (4th Appellate District). Division 1. Records and Briefs California (State)., Mercy Road Dalia Pagani, 1999 From an astonishing new voice on the American literary landscape comes a powerful haunting novel set against the harsh beauty of rural Vermont In Mercy Road Dalia Pagani exposes the soul of a wounded family holding us captive under a spell of unforgettable characters in a mythic place On a rocky windswept mountain ridge at the end of Mercy Road lives a family called Summer Earl and Darlene trappers born to the ridge rooted to the land struggle to find hope and love in an unforgiving place Butch is their firstborn with his father's brawn and his mother's tenderness he would become his brother's keeper Then Sid the strange silent son willed to live by his mother's fierce love And Tina the only daughter full of promise but in whose heart beats her family's madness For the Summers a difficult life comes apart one fall day when Darlene does the unthinkable fleeing the ridge for a long strange winter in New York In the wake of her flight each of the Summers is driven as if by the land itself to make choices that will shape the rest of their lives In the hands of a remarkable writer Mercy Road becomes an epic drama of heroism and redemption of the forces that bind us to the land that gave us roots and of what is passed from generation to generation At once fierce and tender raw and lyrical Mercy Road is a riveting portrait of an unseen corner of the American landscape From the Hardcover edition California.
