Merman An Autobiography:

Merman Ethel Merman, George Eells, 1978 Ethel Merman a living legend who was long Broadway's undisputed queen of musical comedy tells about her fascinating life in this fast moving autobiography packed with surprising anecdotes and brimming with humor If you are interested in hearing about me my career my ups my downs and some of my mistakes she says early on in the book I think you'll get it straight from the shoulder because that's the kind of woman I am Born Ethel Zimmermann in Astoria Queens and once a secretary for a vacuum booster brake firm she rose to fame in such unforgettable musicals as Girl Crazy Panama Hattie Annie Get Your Gun Call Me Madam and Gypsy She became the favorite singer of the Gershwins and of Irving Berlin and Cole Porter they wrote for her such songs as I Got Rhythm You're the Top and There's No Business like Show Business You'd better not write a bad lyric for Merman said Irving Berlin because people will hear it in the second balcony Her unique personality brought her such glamorous friends as the Duke and Duchess of Windsor Mary Martin Judy Garland Joshua Logan Tallulah Bankhead Jimmy Durante Mike Todd Stephen Sondheim and Dwight and Mamie Eisenhower But Merman tells not only of her triumphs on and off the stage but also of the touching devotion that existed between her and her parents and of the lifelong religious underpinning that helped her through the tragedy of losing the daughter she cherished She also discusses her four tempestuous marriages Her first one to agent Bill Smith was short lived but her second one to newspaperman Bob Levitt was made in heaven while it lasted The following one to airline executive Robert Six turned into a costly mistake and the last one to Ernest Borgnine was a headlined fiasco about which she talks uniquely and freely here for the first time Here is her personal view of a great glittering world where today she still reigns supreme doing television shows and concerts throughout the world A very special very honest lady Jacket Ethel Merman Brian Kellow, 2007-11-01 Kellow's chronology is dishy and seamless he understands the dynamics of the theater world and makes you feel the exhilaration of an evolving hit and the frustrations inherent in working with a performer like Merman The New York Times Book Review Kellow has painted a vivid portrait of a Broadway diva who shone brighter and sang louder than anyone else The Washington Post BookWorld More than twenty years after her death Ethel Merman continues to set the standard for American musical theater The stories about the supremely talented famously strong willed fearsomely blunt and terrifyingly exacting woman are stuff of legend But who was Ethel Agnes Zimmermann really Brian Kellow's definitive biography of the great Merman is superb and the first account to examine both the artist and the woman with as much critical rigor as empathy Through dozens of interviews with her colleagues friends and family members Kellow author of Can I Go Now The Life of Sue Mengers Hollywood's First Superagent traces the arc of her life and her thirty year singing career to reveal many surprising facts about Broadway's biggest star Ethel Merman, Mother Teresa-- and Me Tony Cointreau, 2014 Ethel Merman, Mother Teresa ... and Me Tony Cointreau, 2013-09 Muse of Fire Terrence McNally, 2020-11-25 Acclaimed playwright Terrence McNally's works are characterized by such diversity that critics have sometimes had difficulty identifying the pattern in his carpet To redress this problem in Muse of Fire Raymond Jean Frontain has collected McNally's most illuminating meditations on the need of the playwright to first change hearts in order to change minds and thereby foster a more compassionate community When read together these various meditations demonstrate the profound ways in which McNally himself functioned as a member of the theater community as a strikingly original dramatic voice as a generous collaborator and even as the author of eloquent memorials These pieces were originally written to be delivered on both highly formal occasions academic commencement exercises award ceremonies memorial services and as off the cuff comments at highly informal gatherings like a playwriting workshop at the New School They reveal a man who saw theater not as the vehicle for abstract ideas or the platform for political statements but as the exercise of our shared humanity Theatre is collaborative but life is collaborative McNally says Art is important to remind us that we're not alone and this is a wonderful world and we can make it more wonderful by fully embracing each other I don't know why it's so hard to remind ourselves sometimes but thank God we've had great artists who don't let us forget And thank the audiences who support them because I think that those artists' true mission has been to bring the barriers down break them down not build walls but tear them down
