Metaphoric Process Mary Gerhart, Allan Melvin Russell, 1984      Theology and Conversation Jacques Haers, P. De Mey, 2003 This collection of articles presents the main contributions to the third LEST Louvain Encounters in Systematic Theology conference held at the KU Leuven's Faculty of Theology November 2001 Its theme Theology and Conversation Towards a Relational Theology continues the explorations in contemporary theology as set out in the 1997 LEST I conference on The Myriad Christ BETL 152 and in the 1999 LEST II conference on Sacramental Presence in Postmodern Context BETL 160 In LEST III also the plurality and diversity of theological approaches play a major role and the question is raised whether the contemporary theological endeavour in a global world contains in itself the tools to respectfully and constructively approach this diversity The ideas of relation and conversation as found in the theologies of the Trinity and of creation as presupposed in ecclesial praxis and as articulated in reflections that take their bearings from spiritual experience provide a powerful means for renewed theological reflection capable of confronting plurality and diversity      Science & Religion Alister E. McGrath, 2020-04-13 The leading introductory textbook on the study of religion and the natural sciences including new coverage of the latest topics in the field Science and Religion provides students with a thorough introduction to the major themes and landmark debates in the interaction of science and religion Incorporating history philosophy the natural sciences and theology this popular textbook examines how science and religion approach central questions and discusses the relationship between the two areas through the centuries The authoritative and accessible chapters are designed for readers with minimal knowledge of science or theology Written by one of the world's leading authorities on the study of religion and science this fully revised and updated third edition addresses contemporary topics and reflects the latest conceptual developments in the field New and expanded chapters and case studies discuss Scientism evolutionary theodicy the Theory of Relativity warranted belief in science and religion the influence of science and religion on human values and more The most up to date introduction to this exciting and rapidly growing field this textbook Offers an engaging thematically based approach to the subject Provides historical context for major events in science and religion Explores scientific and religious perspectives on Creation and the existence of God Discusses models analogies and issues at the intersection of science and religion One of the most respected and widely adopted textbooks in the field Science and Religion A New Introduction 3rd Edition is an ideal resource for college seminary and university students in courses in science and religion church or community courses in the relation of science and faith and general readers looking for an inclusive overview of the field

Religion and Science W. Mark Richardson, Wesley J. Wildman, 2012-10-12 Emphasizing its historical methodological and constructive dimensions Religion and Science takes the pulse of pertinent current research as the interdisciplinary study of science and religion gains momentum      Hermeneutics of Metaphor, Symbol and Narrative in Faith Development Theory Heinz Streib, 1991 Spine title Hermeneutics in faith development theory      Fifty Years in Science and Religion Robert J.

Russell, 2004 Ian G Barbour is the internationally acknowledged pioneer in the field of science and religion Although public opinion is often swayed by strident voices which attempt to place science and religion in conflict or keep them totally isolated Barbour's voluminous contributions over the past fifty years have carved out a trusted pathway to constructive dialogue and creative mutual interaction between science and religion Fifty Years in Science and Religion brings together nineteen leading scholars in the field to offer an appreciative yet critical assessment of the impact of Barbour's work on science and religion and to point ahead towards future critical areas goals and tasks that await new research and visionary exploration This book includes a unique autobiography by Barbour in which for the first time he shares and reflects on his life and work and a detailed bibliography of Barbour's works Together the authors demonstrate how Barbour's writings and the hundreds of scholars who have now become part of the field have changed the course of intellectual history in the West by making possible and necessary a truly constructive engagement between science and religion in the context of inter religious dialogue and the global human and environmental challenges of our time

Encyclopedia of Science and Religion, 2003
 Publisher description How do the latest medical developments affect our beliefs in faith's healing power Can artificial intelligence compare with human consciousness Are genetic engineers interfering with Nature's work This reference work deals with these questions and others examining the issues and the history associated with the complex relationship between science and religion Articles by scientists of many fields philosophers and thinkers from all the major world religions present a variety of perspectives on the major scientific discoveries of our time and their effects on our religious belief system
