Litowitz, 1997 The author presents a two tiered analysis that views postmodern legal thought as both a collective intellectual movement and as the work of particular theorists notably Friedrich Nietzsche Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Francois Lyotard and Richard Rorty He concludes that even though postmodern thought does not give rise to a normative theory of right that can be used as a framework for deciding cases it can focus attention on genealogy and discourse and can empower those who have been denied a voice in the legal system Annotation copyrighted
