Metaphysics For A Humanist:

Metaphysics for a Humanist S. K. Leung, 2001 This book offers a new look at some of the most established principles underpinning metaphysical thinking. The discussion is at once engaging and provocative taking the reader through the big issues and the big thinkers from Aristotle to Wittgenstein taking Descartes's cogito to task along the way. The author provides provocative discussions exposing and refuting the inherent weaknesses of conceptual reality asserting support of epistemological over logical priority and asking the question how do we conceptualize duration past present and future and reconcile that with oneness. The analysis concludes by showing that it is only humanity that can conceive of reality as necessary contingent or possible.

The Metaphysics of Self and World Elie Maynard Adams, 1991 A great fissure occurred in Western civilization in the early modern period with the divorce between the humanities and the sciences and the rise of scientific naturalism. The Metaphysics of Self and World is a philosophical exploration of the relationship between the individual the culture and the world. It is in the author's words a philosophy of the humanities a philosophy of humanity and a philosophy of social reality. It explores the implications of a world view that would integrate the perspective of the sciences with humanistic ways of thought. E M Adams claims that we do violence to ourselves as human beings by trying to fit into the world as delineated in scientific categories. Rejecting cultural subjectivism and scientific naturalism he argues for the irreducibility and validity of the categories of the humanities and for a fully developed humanistic philosophy of self and world. In generating this world view he utilizes the humanities as a source of culture therapy in order to close the fissure in Western civilization. Author note: E M Adams is Kenan Professor of Philosophy Emeritus at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill. He has written numerous books and articles and a festschrift celebrating his work Mind Value and Culture Essays in Honor of E M Adams edited by David Weissbord was published in 1989.

The Metaphysics of Night Matthew Del Nevo, 2014-04-18 The Metaphysics of Night acknowledges a post secular philosophy one that puts philosophy into serious dialogue with religion rather than considering religion a thing of the past. Matthew Del Nevo deals with the cultural unconscious inseparable from religious consciousness and draws on psychoanalysis and literature as well as philosophy. The metaphysics of the night is Del Nevo's metaphor for the deep and mysterious expanse of the soul. Philosophically the book is critical of Enlightenment presumptions about knowledge and truth and overly spiritualizing tendencies in religion. Its critical edge cuts against materialist and historicist tendencies in the humanities and abstract intellectualism in philosophy. Arguing for strong aesthetic values Del Nevo defends and explains soul and soulful experience the creation of depth the ineffable real presence beauty and saving words noting that the sources of all these are in us but often are blocked. Each of the five parts of this book testify to what the author notes may be forgotten but which ought not to be forgotten. It is necessary for life as socially religiously and educationally instituted within culture and as constitutive for culture. Del Nevo deals with sensibility as a form of wisdom and instinct that is not cognitive or knowledge information based. He argues for a shift of emphasis in
