Methodologies Of Black Theology:

Methodologies of Black Theology Frederick L. Ware, 2008-02-01 Frederick L Ware provides a classification and criticism of methodological perspectives in the academic study interpretation and construction of black theology in the U S from 1969 to the present and establishes and recognizes three different schools of academic black theology The Black Hermeneutical School The Black Philosophical School The Human Sciences School Similarities and differences are delineated in the identification of each school s representative thinkers and their views on the tasks content sources norm method and goals of black theology

African American Theology Frederick L. Ware, 2016-03-01 This book presents a substantial introduction to the major methodologies figures and themes within African American theology Frederick L Ware explores African American theology from its inception and places it within dual contexts first the African American struggle for dignity and full humanity and second the broader scope of Christian belief Readers will appreciate Ware s demonstration of how black theology is expressed in a wide range of sources that includes not only scholarly publications but also African American sermons music news and editorials biography literature popular periodicals folklore and philosophy Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion and suggested resources for further study Ware provides a seasoned perspective on where African American theology has been and where it is going and he demonstrates its creativity within the chorus of Christian theology

Practical Theology for Black Churches Dale P. Andrews, 2002-01-01 Exploring the concept of church as refuge offers a way to bridge the gap between black theology with its social and political concerns and black churches with their emphases on pastoral care and piety

Black Theology and Ideology Harry H. Singleton, III, 2020-10-20 Combining the theological methods of Juan Luis Segundo and James H Cone Harry Singleton sheds new light on the impact of race on the origin and development of theology in America In Black Theology and Ideology Singleton appropriates Segundo s method of deideologization to argue that relevant theological reflection must expose religio political ideologies that justify human oppression in the name of God as a distortion of the gospel and counter them with new theological presuppositions rooted in liberation Singleton then contextualizes Segundo s method by offering the theology of James Cone as the most viable example of such a theological perspective in America Chapters are The Black Experience and the Emergence of Ideological Suspicion The Western Intellectual Tradition and Ideological Suspicion Hermeneutical Methodology and the Emergence of Exegetical Suspicion A New Hermeneutic and The Case for Indigenous Deideologization Harry H Singleton III Ph D is assistant professor of comparative religions and African American religion in the religion philosophy department at Benedict College Columbia South Carolina

Dramatizing Theologies Anthony G. Reddie, 2014-12-05 Black theology has flourished within the academy Its theories however have not always translated into practical use for Black people Dramatizing Theologies outlines the strong practical dimension of Black theology Combining Black theology with dramatic dialogical sketch material the book produces an accessible approach to Black theological dialogue The chasm between the academy church and grassroots communities is overcome through the use of drama. Dramatizing Theologies offers a unique methodology for Black theological conversation with the poor, marginalized, and disenfranchised.

Black Theology: 1980-1992 James H. Cone, Gayraud S. Wilmore, 1993 Theology in the Mode of Monk: An Aesthetics of Barth and Cone on Revelation and Freedom, Volume 2 Raymond Carr, 2024-11-15

This captivating study engages two of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century: Karl Barth, the Swiss Protestant theologian who constructed his theology from above and engaged the powers in the background of Nazi Germany; and James H. Cone, the father of Black Theology in America who constructed his theology from below and confronted white racism, the most intractable issue in America's history. In this three-volume project, Carr employs the aesthetic thinking of the jazz legend Thelonious Monk to reconceptualize, restructure, and advance the theologies of Barth and Cone. In this second volume, Carr appeals to Monk's tune "Round Midnight" as the analogical framework for articulating the meaning between Christ, the cantus firmus, and the sociopolitical histories of Karl Barth and James Cone. Monk's encouragement to improvise on the melody is heard as the melodic foundation for a new form of christological reflection.

Liberating Black Theology Anthony B. Bradley, 2010

An African American theologian presents this timely critique of the victimology theme within black liberation theology and its long-standing spiritual and social implications.

Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity John H. McClendon III, 2019-05-03

Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity: A Philosophical Appraisal constitutes a philosophical inquiry on Black Theology and its attendant Black Christology. Explicitly, the philosophical examination of Black Theology conceptually maps its quest for establishing Black Christology as an authentic form within Christian theology. This text critically expounds on the methodologies and arguments which guide how Black Theology specifically affirms Black Christology as the definitive paradigm for authentic Christianity. Significantly, the racialized character of Black Theology immediately sets this discourse within the context of philosophy of race. Clearly, the philosophy of race in terms of its substance and scope is continually expanding. Notably, the philosophy of religion in its conceptual association with the African American experience considerably enriches the content of the philosophy of race. Therefore, Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity: A Philosophical Appraisal stands as a unique contribution to philosophy of race. Summarily, while this book tackles the formidable problem of Christian theological subject matter, nonetheless, the reader must be aware that this is not a work executed methodologically in any theological manner inclusive of Christian theology. Subsequently, while the object of our investigation substantively remains theological in character, the method of investigation is guided by philosophical inquiry which is based on secular principles. Furthermore, although most mainstream works in philosophy of religion along with theology neglect to examine African American theologians and philosophers, the subject matter of Black Christology substantially facilitates filling this intellectual void.

Theological Encyclopædia and Methodology: Introduction and exegetical theology Revere Franklin Weidner, 1898

Europe's Role in a South African Methodology Christina Landman, 1991

This work consists of essays on the so called Middle Ages seen from two perspectives Writing from a sideline perspective as opposed to the perspectives of historically mainstream theologies in the first part of the book the author proposes a method for reading religious political texts with European philosophical insights but with a relevance for South Africa This is done by comparing so called Medieval texts with South African texts and situations within the demands of liberation contextualisation and communalism In the second part of the book from a female perspective the author reevaluates the post Biblical history of Christianity criticising the terms Patristics and Middle Ages A South African women s theology is then offered as the outcome of the sideline perspective on the Bible history and theology discussed in this book

Working Against the Grain Anthony Reddie,2008 Contains essays that outline a different vision for a liberative model of Christianity built upon the insights of Black Theology This book argues that a re imagined Black theology can enable Christianity in particular and Black Christian faith in general to recapture the radical intent of this globalized religious framework

For My People James H. Cone,1984 Looks at the history of Black theology discusses its relationship to white and liberation theology and identifies new directions for Black churches to take in the eighties

The Cambridge Companion to Black Theology Dwight N. Hopkins,Edward P. Antonio,2012-07-26 This volume discusses normative theological categories from a black perspective and argues that there is no major Christian doctrine on which black theology has not commented Part One explores introductory questions such as what have been the historical and social factors fostering a black theology and what are some of the internal factors key to its growth Part Two examines major doctrines which have been important for black theology in terms of clarifying key intellectual foci common to the study of religion The final part discusses black theology as a world wide development constituted by interdisciplinary approaches The volume has an important role in bringing Christian thought into confrontation with one of the central challenges of modernity namely the problem of race and racism This Companion puts theological themes in conversation with issues of ethnicity gender social analysis politics and class and is ideal for undergraduate and graduate students

Frontiers in Dalit Hermeneutics ,2005 Contributed articles presented at the First International Seminar on Hermeneutics of Subaltern Praxis with Special Reference to Dalits organized by the Centre for Dalit Subaltern Studies New Delhi from Oct 26 29 2004 includes follow up seminar on the same theme in South India on March 11 13 2005 held at Vellore

Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity John H. McClendon,2019 This text critically examines the methodologies and arguments that guide how Black theology specifically affirms Black Christology as the definitive paradigm for authentic Christianity Significantly the racialized character of Black theology immediately sets this discourse w

Black Theology Today James Deotis Roberts,1983 This text confronts key issues in the field of black theology

Home Away from Home Delroy A. Reid-Salmon,2008 Home Away from Home explores how Caribbean diasporan people understand themselves in light of their faith in Jesus Christ Taking the Caribbean diasporan experience as a source for theological discourse the book argues that the faith Caribbean people brought with them into the diaspora plays a central role in their development The study identifies three forms of Caribbean diasporan identity provides a theological interpretation of the diasporan experience delineates the foundational theological principles traces the patterns of and proposes the distinctives of the Caribbean diasporan church

Black Theology, Slavery and Contemporary Christianity
Anthony G. Reddie, 2016-04-15 Black Theology Slavery and Contemporary Christianity explores the legacy of slavery in Black theological terms Challenging the dominant approaches to the history and legacy of slavery in the British Empire the contributors show that although the 1807 act abolished the slave trade it did not end racism notions of White supremacy or the demonization of Blackness Black people and Africa This interdisciplinary study draws on biblical studies history missiology and Black theological reflection exploring the strengths and limitations of faith as the framework for abolitionist rhetoric and action This Black theological approach to the phenomenon of the trans Atlantic slave trade and the institution of slavery draws on contributions from Africa the Caribbean North America and Europe
