Marketisation Of Governance Critical Feminist Perspectives From The South:

Marketisation of Governance Vivienne Taylor, 2000      Feminists Who Changed America, 1963-1975 Barbara J.

Love, 2006-09-22 Documents the key feminists who ignited the second wave women's movement. This work tells the stories of more than two thousand individual women and a few notable men who together reignited the women's movement and made permanent changes to entrenched customs and laws      Globalization and Feminist Activism Mary E.

Hawkesworth, 2018-06-15 This thoroughly updated edition provides a comprehensive overview of two centuries of transnational feminist efforts to produce a more just global order. Mary Hawkesworth explores how social, economic and political inequalities between men and women of different races, classes, ethnicities and nationalities have been transformed over two centuries of globalization. Drawing on historical and contemporary examples, she demonstrates how women have forged international networks and alliances to address specific women's issues beyond the borders of the nation-state, crafting policies to mitigate pressing abuses and devising alternatives to liberal and neo-liberal agendas. The book considers innovative feminist tactics to produce global change, carefully tracing the structural forces that constrain transnational feminist activism. Hawkesworth illuminates the complexity of feminist strategies to influence international agencies and foundations, national governments and transnational NGOs. By providing critical new insights into the gendered nature of the global system and the gendered dynamics of international institutions and nation-states, this work will be invaluable for all those engaged in the interdisciplinary fields of globalization studies and feminist studies      Global Citizens Marjorie

Mayo, 2008-02-29 The dawn of the twenty-first century has been accompanied by an upsurge of anti-capitalist campaigning challenging the very basis of the New World Economic Order. Dramatic events such as the protests from Seattle to Genoa have captured media headlines. But media headlines leave key questions unanswered: questions about the ultimate significance of the challenges posed by global social movements and the development of civil society both South and North. This book sets out to explore the lessons from these experiences of social mobilisation. How can non-governmental organisations, community-based organisations and the labour and trade union movement develop effective campaigning alliances without becoming institutionalised and incorporated themselves? How can they maintain an effective balance between winning immediate gains without losing sight of longer-term strategies for transformation? How can they work with celebrities to gain media attention without losing control of the message? And how can social movements develop organisational forms that are genuinely representative and democratically accountable globally? These questions are explored through case studies of particular networks, movements and campaigns to tackle the causes of social inequality and social injustice. It concludes by exploring lessons for building global challenges to neo-liberal agendas and developing more transformatory approaches      Women Reinventing Globalisation Caroline Sweetman, Joanna Kerr, 2003 This volume analyses approaches to economic and political change and proposes ways of ensuring that ideas are translated into concrete actions.

The aim is to re politicise the gender and development community with a solutions oriented approach which looks at globalisation through women s eyes and finds energising ideas     Healing a Broken World Cynthia D.
