The Veterinarian ,1891 Identity, Mediation, and the Cunning of Capital Ani Maitra,2020-05-15 In Identity Mediation and the Cunning of Capital Ani Maitra urgently calls for a reevaluation of identity politics as an aesthetic maneuver regulated by capitalism A dominant critical trend in the humanities Maitra argues is to dismiss or embrace identity through the formal properties of a privileged aesthetic medium such as literature cinema or even the performative body In contrast he demonstrates that identity politics becomes unavoidably real and material only because the minoritized subject is split between multiple sites of mediation visual linguistic and sonic while remaining firmly tethered to capitalism s hierarchical logic of value production Only in the interstices of media can we track the aesthetic conversion of identitarian difference into value marked by the inequities of race class gender and sexuality Maitra s archive is transnational and multimodal Moving from anticolonial polemics to psychoanalysis to diasporic experimental literature to postcolonial feminist and queer media he lays bare the cunning by which capitalism produces and fragments identity through an intermedial aesthetic dissonance with the commodity form Maitra s novel contribution to theories of identity and to the concept of mediation will interest a wide range of scholars in media studies critical race and postcolonial studies and critical aesthetics
