Specters of War Elisabeth Bronfen,2012-10-03 Specters of War looks at the way war has been brought to the screen in various genres and at different historical moments throughout the twentieth century and into the twenty first Elisabeth Bronfen asserts that Hollywood has emerged as a place where national narratives are created and circulated so that audiences can engage with fantasies ideologies and anxieties that take hold at a given time only to change with the political climate. Such cultural reflection is particularly poignant when it deals with America's traumatic history of war. The nation has no direct access to war as a horrific experience of carnage and human destruction; we understand our relation to it through images and narratives that transmit and interpret it for us. Bronfen does not discuss actual conflicts but the films by which we have come to know and remember them, including All Quiet on the Western Front, The Best Years of Our Lives, Miracle at St. Anna, The Deer Hunter and Flags of Our Fathers. Battles and campaigns, the home front and women who wait, narratives, war correspondents and court martials are also explored as instruments of cultural memory. Bronfen argues that we are haunted by past wars and by cinematic reconceptualizations of them and reveals a national iconography of redemptive violence from which we seem unable to escape.

The New Yale Book of Quotations Fred R. Shapiro, 2021-08-31. A revised, enlarged and updated edition of this authoritative and entertaining reference book, named the 2021 essential home library reference book by the Wall Street Journal. Shapiro does original research, earning this volume a place on the quotation shelf next to Bartlett's and Oxford's William Safire New York Times Magazine on the original edition. The most accurate, thorough and up-to-date quotation book ever compiled, Bryan A. Garner Los Angeles Review of Books. Updated to include more than a thousand new quotations, this reader-friendly volume contains over twelve thousand famous quotations arranged alphabetically by author and sourced from literature, history, popular culture, sports, digital culture, science, politics, law, the social sciences and all other aspects of human activity. Contemporaries added to this edition include Beyoncé, Sandra Cisneros, James Comey, Drake, Louise Gluck, LeBron James, Brett Kavanaugh, Lady Gaga, Lin Manuel Miranda, Barack Obama, John Oliver, Nancy Pelosi, Vladimir Putin, Bernie Sanders, Donald Trump and David Foster Wallace. The volume also reflects path-breaking recent research, resulting in the updating of quotations from the first edition with more accurate wording or attribution. It has also incorporated non-contemporary quotations that have become relevant to the present day. In addition, The New Yale Book of Quotations reveals the striking fact that women originated many familiar quotations, yet their roles have been forgotten and their verbal inventions have often been credited to prominent men instead. This book's quotations, annotations, extensive cross references and large keyword index will satisfy both the reader who seeks specific information and the curious browser who appreciates an amble through entertaining pages.
