Marriage Mini:

Women and the State in Modern Indonesia Susan Blackburn, 2004-11-11 In the first study of the kind Susan Blackburn examines how Indonesian women have engaged with the state since they began to organise a century ago. Voices from the women's movement resound in these pages posing demands such as education for girls and reform of marriage laws. The state for its part is shown attempting to control women. The book investigates the outcomes of these mutual claims and the power of the state and the women's movement in improving women's lives. It also questions the effects on women of recent changes to the state such as Indonesia's transition to democracy and the election of its first female president. The wider context is important. On some issues like reproductive health international institutions have been influential and as the largest Islamic society in the world Indonesia offers special insights into the role of religion in shaping relations between women and the state.

Indian Women Novelists in English Birendra Pandey, 2001 The Wait Damodar Mauzo, 2022-05-23 Damodar Mauzo's stories present us with vivid glimpses of the richly diverse cosmopolitan reality of contemporary Goa. In these perceptive keenly observed stories Hindus Catholics and Muslims all find ways to co-exist in defiance of bigotry. AMITAV GHOSH A cab driver who assumes the identity of whoever his clients want him to be finds himself in a tricky situation with a passenger. A late night call leads a doctor down a path of lust and desire but with unexpected results. A writer acquaints himself with a thief who had broken into his house. A migrant worker falls in love but wonders how he can present himself as a suitor. A young man having lost the love of his life takes it upon himself to resolve another couple's dilemmas. Konkani writer Damodar Mauzo's sometimes bizarre sometimes tender stories set largely in Goa create a world far removed from the sun and sand and the holiday resorts. Here you find villagers facing moral choices children waking up to the realities of adult lives men who dwell on remorse women who live a life of regret and communities whose bonds are growing tenuous in an age of religious polarization. Probing the deepest corners of the human psyche with tongue in cheek humour Mauzo's stories reveal the many threads that connect us to others and the ease with which they can be broken. Written in simple prose and yet layered in nuances The Wait is a collection that brings to the anglophone world one of the doyens of Konkani literature.

MAA RASHMI RAMESHWAR GUPTA, 2025-06-27 Writing anything about a mother is never easy. A mother is the epitome of sacrifice penance and unconditional love. In this novel Maa Mother I have tried to write about a mother's journey and her emotions. A human life goes through four stages of which the most challenging is old age when the body starts to gradually give up. The younger generation caught in the vibrancy of youth often cannot feel or understand the pain and struggles their elders go through. Today's children too don't get to stay with their parents for long. As they grow they move away for education. After marriage they get engrossed in their own families. In such a scenario what will happen to our elders when there is no one left to understand their emotions or take care of them? This is a deeply troubling question because one day we all must go through old age. By the time the youth begin to understand the realities of aging it is often too late In such times whose compassion will our elders rely on Is this what the modern era has come to Regardless of how advanced our times may be we must remain empathetic towards our elders for only then will true humanity survive Otherwise we will lose ourselves It is undeniably true that parents are divine beings Serving them never goes in vain No matter how much we serve the world if we fail to serve our parents if we cannot say a few loving words to them in their final days or lend support to their trembling hands our lives are in vain Those who get the fortune to serve their parents are indeed truly blessed I never wish to keep good thoughts confined within me That is why any thought that brings inspiration or motivation to move forward in life I will always try to bring to you through my writing This is my promise to all of you With this sentiment I bow wholeheartedly to Lord Shiva Mata Parvati Lord Ganesha the remover of all obstacles and Maa Saraswati the goddess of wisdom I now present to you my heartfelt creation the novel Maa You may have read the first 50 parts of this novel on Facebook Due to time constraints I had to pause midway and had promised you all that you would definitely read the rest in the form of a complete novel With your support love and blessings that promise has now been fulfilled I request you to kindly forgive my small errors and shower this work with your love and blessings Forever yours Rashmi Rameshwar Gupta Bilaspur Chhattisgarh

The Call to Fatima Thomas McCormack, Solvita McCormack, 2017-03-16 The authors had three unique influences to help them write the Call to Fatima The Missed Message They had access to the writings of the servant of God Sr Lucia before and after she died They had access to those who knew the servant of God Sr Lucia personally and who wanted to share their knowledge to what Sr Lucia wanted the world to know about Fatima People from around the world approached the film directors to give their support to make Sr Lucia's writings into a double award winning film titled the Call to Fatima The Story and the Message and to translate it to twelve languages Their privileged position and unique insight shaped and influenced them to write down their accumulated knowledge in the hope that the Call to Fatima The Missed Message will save souls from eternal death It was Cardinal Ratzinger now retired Pope Benedict XVI who signed off Sr Lucias book Calls from the Message of Fatima for the Doctrine of the Faith at the Vatican He turned to the late Fr Luis Kondor the vice postulator for Blessed Francisco and Jacinta Marto and stated Calls from the Message of Fatima is the most important book for Catholics for twenty first century When Fr Luis Kondor gave Thomas McCormack permission to start the Call to Fatima film it dawned on him and others that the majority of Catholics missed the central message of Fatima The chapter to Pope Francis is pleading with some urgency to revive the Five First Saturday Devotion and restore the daily family rosary around the world in order that the Fatima promise of the Triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary can be accelerated as requested by Pope Benedict XVI in Fatima on the 13 May 2010 Without knowing it at the time this work first started on the 13 May 1999 and the authors have no doubt the hand of God through Mary made it possible It is yet another example of how much God loves us and how much he wants to save our souls The
