Smith,Steven R. Wilson,2010 Smith and Steven R Sh'ma ,1997 American Book Publishing Record ,2004 Family Processes and Problems Stuart Oskamp,1987 Family Processes and Problems presents a selection of social psychological studies of the family and provides a lively overview of this increasingly important field within the discipline Theoretical issues practical problems and policy implications are all covered in this comprehensive collection Marriages and Families Karen Seccombe,Rebecca L. Warner,2004 In this fresh more structural alternative to other texts for the marriage and family course Seccombe and Warner provide a comprehensive look at close relationships and the family in just 15 chapters Examining close relationships and families by placing them in social context the authors offer a unique emphasis on the structural and relational aspects of the family with a focus on family resilience The text weaves together a macro view social structural analysis of close relationships with the macro an individualist view The authors demonstrate the interaction of theory and methodology in family studies in Chapter 2 and blend cutting edge research and practical applications throughout Among the highlights of this first edition are the exceptionally thorough exploration of the topics of singlehood and cohabitation in Chapter 7 and the unique six chapter core 8 13 that focuses on all aspects of parenthood and the challenges and crises that families face today The authors emphasis on family resilience and how families can be strengthened is reflected in the Constructing Strong Families boxes that appear throughout the text These features encourage students to apply groundbreaking research on what makes a family strong to their own families and in the concluding chapter Looking Ahead Helping Families Flourish which examines the factors that successful families regardless of ethnicity culture or social class consistently exhibit

Constructing Worlds Together Kenneth J. Gergen,Stuart M. Schrader,Mary M. Gergen,2009 Accompanied by author analysis and contemporary applications this collection of readings reflections and invitations to dialogue make Interpersonal Communication Making Worlds Together a highly readable yet sophisticated text that is well suited for today s interpersonal communication course Theoretical essays research reports narratives and ethnographic studies have been carefully selected by the authors for their clarity and intellectual stimulation The authors introduce each reading and provide the reader with a preview of its insight relevance and association with social constructionist theory Each piece is followed by a series of challenges and questions to help further understanding and to stimulate continuing dialogue with an emphasis on interactive learning Readers will come away with an ability to apply the wisdom of interpersonal communication with a critical eye to future challenges
