Marriages Between Zones Three Four And Five:

The Marriages Between Zones Three, Four, and Five (as Narrated by the Chroniclers of Zone Three) Doris Lessing,1980
A mix of fable futuristic fantasy and pseudo documentary accounts of 20th century history     The Marriages Between Zones Three, Four, and Five Doris Lessing,1983     The Marriage Quest in Canopus Deborah Ann Shaw,1992     The Marriages Between Zones Three, Four, and Five: Doris Lessing's Alchemical Allegory Roberta Rubenstein,1970     The Marriages Between Zones 3, 4 and 5 (Canopus in Argos: Archives Series, Book 2) Doris Lessing,2012-06-28 From Doris Lessing winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature this is the second instalment in the visionary novel cycle Canopus in Argos: Archives     Marriages Between Zones Three, Four, and Five (As Narrated by the Chroniclers of Zone Three); Canopus in Argos: Archives Doris Lessing,1980     Politics, Persuasion, and Pragmatism Ellen Susan Peel,2002 An addition to the Theory and Interpretation of Narrative series Peel's book addresses how feminist utopian narratives attempt to persuade readers to adopt certain beliefs Using three feminist utopian novels as her main examples The Marriages between Zones Three Four and Five by Doris Lessing The Left Hand of Darkness by Ursula K Le Guin and Les Guerillères by Monique Wittig Peel examines how belief bridging and protean metaphor in these works persuade readers Literary persuasion often dismissed as propaganda in fact works in subtle and profound ways The book presents major techniques by which narrative literature exercises this sophisticated influence on beliefs Ultimately concluding that the pragmatic works better than the static in utopian feminism Peel shows how in novels such as those under discussion the narrative techniques support pragmatism Inquiring how narrative form can shape political belief by affecting readers responses the author integrates topics that are rarely combined The book investigates three theoretical issues utopian belief distinguishing the perfectionism of the static from the vitality of the pragmatic and showing how the latter creates narrative energy the persuasive process tracing narrative form and asking how implied readers match real ones and how readers are swayed by belief bridging and protean metaphor and feminist belief a nuanced definition that accounts both for what links feminists and what makes them diverse Politics Persuasion and Pragmatism explores the rhetorical and ethical power of narrative literature     Doris Lessing Gayle Greene,1994 An original and compelling appraisal of this important international literary figure     (Un)like Subjects Gerardine Meaney,2012-08-21 What is the relationship between feminist critical theory and literature This book deals with the relationship between women and writing mothers and daughters the maternal and history It addresses the questions about language writing and the relations between women which have preoccupied the three most influential French feminists and three important contemporary British women novelists Treating both fiction and theory as texts she traces the connections between the theorists Hélène Cixous Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva and the novelists Doris Lessing Angela Carter and Muriel Spark This reading of the work of these six major women writers explores new forms of women's identity subjectivity and narrative and demonstrates how theoretical and literary texts can illuminate each other to bridge the gap between theory and literary criticism     The Span of Mainstream and Science Fiction Peter Brigg,2015-09-16 From the 1960s when the advent of what many call the postmodern style made establishing genres more difficult to the present day writers have been incorporating science not only the commonly thought of science and technology but also the soft sciences such as psychology and sociology into what was previously considered mainstream fiction This book examines works by Thomas Pynchon Doris Lessing and others who incorporate science in fiction and exemplify the movement of mainstream fiction writers toward a new genre termed span It also examines works by some science fiction writers who are edging closer to the border of science fiction and slowly over into span This book maps the boundaries of the new span genre of fiction and thus helps define texts that fall outside the realms of mainstream and science fiction Diagrams are included and a bibliography and index     Read This Next Howard Mittelmark,Sandra Newman,2010-11-02 Are you tired of bland overly earnest reading guides that discuss the same old books Read This Next by Sandra Newman and Howard Mittelmark is the answer A smart irreverent honest and truly hilarious guide to your 500 new favorite books Read This Next is aimed at those readers and book groups that are looking for great reading suggestions with more variety and spice than the usual book club picks while offering food for thought and laughter in equal measure     Canopus in Argos - archives Doris Lessing,1980

LITERATURE, GENDER, SPACE Beatriz Domínguez García,Sonia Villegas López,2021-09-11 Perhaps the most serious challenge that the present volume offers to the latest literature on the tapie is the reflection on gender space and literature from the perspective of masculinity a position which has been no doubt neglected by many years of feminist debate concentrating on women s positions and circumstances This is specifically one of the novelties that the International Conference on Gendered Spaces celebrated in May 2001 at the University of Huelva from which this work springs introduced The articles collected here constitute a selection of the most relevant contributions made at this Conference     Spiritual Exploration in the Works of Doris Lessing Phyllis Perrakis,1999-04-30 Though Doris Lessing never explicitly refers to spirituality in her works she nonetheless explores spiritual issues throughout her texts This book examines the prominence of spirituality in her writings The volume provides both close readings of individual works and sweeping surveys of her nearly fifty year career The contributors employ a variety of theoretical perspectives such as systems theory feminist studies of the body and of androgyny postcolonial theories mythic prophecy and intersubjective psychology The contributors reveal that Lessing s presentation of spirituality is neither rigid nor orthodox neither the product of the split between the body and the soul nor anchored in formal systems of the past or present The volume is divided into three sections The first on spirituality manifested in everyday life examines individual works in which ordinary experiences such as growing old or struggling to adopt to the difficulties of married life comment on spiritual concerns Included are chapters on The Diaries of Jane Somers and The Marriages Between Zones Three Four and Five The second section contains chapters on the formation and dissolution of individual identity for characters at different stages of the life cycle and the parallel changes within societies at different stages of cultural collapse The third part presents chapters on the larger patterns that inform many of Lessing's works with attention either to individual texts or to clusters of her writings     Love, Again Doris Lessing, 2012-01-30 A fierce compelling account of the nature and origins of love from Doris Lessing one of the most acclaimed writers of the twentieth century and winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature 2007     Alfred and Emily Doris Lessing, 2009-10-13 I think my father's rage at the trenches took me over when I was very young and has never left me Do children feel their parents' emotions Yes we do and it is a legacy I could have done without What is the use of it It is as if that old war is in my own memory my own consciousness In this extraordinary book the 2007 Nobel Laureate Doris Lessing explores the lives of her parents each irrevocably damaged by the Great War Her father wanted the simple life of an English farmer but shrapnel almost killed him in the trenches and thereafter he had to wear a wooden leg Her mother Emily spent the war nursing the wounded in the Royal Free Hospital after her great love a doctor drowned in the Channel In the fictional first half of Alfred and Emily Doris Lessing imagines the happier lives her parents might have made for themselves had there been no war a story that begins with their meeting at a village cricket match outside Colchester This is followed by a piercing examination of their relationship as it actually was in the shadow of the Great War of the family's move to Africa and of the impact of her parents' marriage on a young woman growing up in a strange land Here I still am says Doris Lessing trying to get out from under that monstrous legacy trying to get free Triumphantly with the publication of Alfred and Emily she has done just that     Mara and Dann Doris Lessing, 2012-11-01 A visionary novel from Doris Lessing winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature

Understanding Doris Lessing Jean Pickering, 1990 Over her 40 year career Doris Lessing has dealt with a variety of themes of extraliterary importance such as race issues colonialism the relations between men and women the consequences of the nuclear arms race the evolution of humanity and of old age Understanding Doris Lessing introduces readers to a body of work that through a variety of techniques attempts to enlarge our understanding of the literary enterprise of history and of humanity's relationship to the universe Included in the discussion are Lessing's earlier works The Grass is Singing Children of Violence The Golden Notebook and her more recent books The Good Terrorist and The Fifth Child     The Women's Annual, ... the Year in Review , 1980     The Women's Annual , 1980
