Marston Moor:

Marston Moor, 1644 Peter Young,1970 The battle of Marston Moor proved to be a turning point in the Civil War and perhaps the biggest ever fought on English soil The Royalist cause was dealt a mortal blow and although the conflict continued for another year or more Royalist fortunes never really recovered As Margaret Toynbee asserts in her introduction the chief responsibility for the disaster rests with Prince Rupert who failed to liaise with his fellow general the Marquess of Newcastle Equally Oliver Cromwell should receive much of the credit for Parliament s victory This book describes the campaign and the battle

Marston Moor, 1644 John Tincey,2005 The entry of the Scots into the English Civil War on 19 January 1644 on the side of Parliament radically changed the balance of power in the North of England The Royalists in the North were forced onto the defensive and besieged in York In a bold march Prince Rupert outmanoeuvred his enemies and relieved York without a shot being fired However when Rupert met the allied army in battle on Marston Moor on 2 July his cavalry was defeated by Cromwell s Ironsides who then turned on the Royalist infantry The result was a hard fought but catastrophic defeat the Royalist army was crushed and their forces driven from the north of England
