Martha Quest:

Martha Quest Doris Lessing,1995-09-01 Martha Quest is a passionate and intelligent young woman living on a farm in Africa feeling her way through the torments of adolescence and early womanhood to marriage She is a romantic idealist in revolt against the puritan snobbery of her parents trying to live to the full with every nerve emotion and instinct bared to experience For her this is a time of solidarity reading daydreams dancing and the first disturbing encounters with sex Martha Quest is the first novel in Doris Lessing s classic Children of Violence sequence of novels each a masterpiece in its own right and taken together an incisive all encompassing vision of our world in the twentieth century Martha Quest Doris

Lessing,2009-12-22 In the Children of Violence Series first published in the 1950s and 60s Doris Lessing transformed her fascinating life into fiction creating her most complex and compelling character Martha Quest The five novels follow Martha from her adolescence on a farm in Africa through failed marriages radical political activities high times in heady 1960s

London and into a frightening future Martha Quest Doris May Lessing,1970 Martha Quest Doris Lessing,1993 The opening book in the Nobel Prize for Literature winner s Children of Violence series tracing the life of Martha Quest from her childhood in colonial Africa to old age in post nuclear Britain When we first meet Martha Quest she is a girl of fifteen living with her parents on a poor African farm She is eager for life and resentful of the deadening narrowness of home and escapes to take a job as a typist in the local capital Here in the big city she encounters the real life she was so eager to know and understand As a picture of colonial life Martha Quest succeeds by the depth of its realism alone but always at its centre is Martha a sympathetic figure drawn with unrelenting objectivity Martha s Africa is Doris Lessing s Africa the restrictive life of the farm the atmosphere of racial fear and antagonism the superficial sophistication of the city And both Martha and Lessing are Children of Violence the generation that was born of one world war and came of age in another whose abrasive relationships with their parents with one another and with society are laid bare brilliantly by a writer who understands them better than any other Martha Quest Doris May Lessing,1970-09 Martha Quest Doris Lessing,1975 Martha

Quest Doris Lessing,1996 The Companion to African Literatures G. D. Killam,Ruth Rowe,2000 Refreshing African Studies Review The entries are knowledgeable thorough and clearly written Highly recommended Choice an ambitious reference guide to works on African literature African Studies Review This comprehensive compendium will be a handy companion for anyone working on African literatures The entries are authoritative and up to date providing reliable information on the hundreds of authors and texts that have contributed to a whole continent s literary flowering Berndt Lindfors A comprehensive introduction and guide to African authored works with over 1 000 cross referenced entries covering classics in African writing literary genres and movements biographical details of authors and wider themes linking African Afro Caribbean and Afro American literatures Doris Lessing Margaret Moan Rowe,1994-10-03 Through close readings of Doris Lessing s novels from The Grass is Singing to The Fifth Child Margaret Moan Rowe maps many of the literary and cultural negotiations that make Doris Lessing both a maverick and a mainstream novelist Examining the pull of paternal and maternal biographical and literary identification in Lessing Rowe relates them to the tensions between the ordinary and the visionary in her fiction Children of Violence: Martha Quest Doris Lessing,1970 Phenomenological Perspectives on Place, Lifeworlds, and Lived Emplacement David Seamon,2023-03-17 Phenomenological Perspectives on Place Lifeworlds and Lived Emplacement is a compilation of seventeen previously published articles and chapters by David Seamon one of the foremost researchers in environmental architectural and place phenomenology These entries discuss such topics as body subject the lived body place ballets environmental serendipity homeworlds and the pedagogy of place and placemaking The volume s chapters are broken into three parts Part I includes four entries that consider what phenomenology offers studies of place and placemaking These chapters illustrate the theoretical and practical value of phenomenological concepts like lifeworld natural attitude and bodily actions in place Part II incorporates five chapters that aim to understand place and lived emplacement phenomenologically Topics covered include environmental situatedness architectural phenomenology environmental serendipity and the value of phenomenology for a pedagogy of place and placemaking Part III presents a number of explications of real world places and place experience drawing on examples from photography Andr Kert sz s Meudon television Alan Ball s Six Feet Under film John Sayles Limbo and Sunshine State and imaginative literature Doris Lessing s The Four Gated City and Louis Bromfield s The World We Live in Seamon is a major figure in environment behavior research particularly as that work has applied value for design professionals This volume will be of interest to geographers environmental psychologists architects planners policymakers and other researchers and practitioners concerned with place place experience place meaning and place making

Post-colonial Women Writers Sunita Sinha,2008 Rereading Doris Lessing Claire Sprague,2014-07-02

According to Sprague doubling in Lessing s novels is a perfect correlative for the complexity and contradiction Lessing perceives as central to the private and collective human experience Her doubles and multiples not only indicate the fracturing or the formation of identity but they also are among the several strategies used to project complex private and societal concerns This study of Lessing s dialectical imagination extends and revises earlier feminist approaches Originally published in 1987 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Martha Quest and A Proper Marriage Doris Lessing,1965 Genre Transitions in Contemporary Fiction Selin Şencan,2025-09-09 This volume explores how contemporary fiction responds to global challenges by reshaping genre conventions and narrative forms The book brings together twelve chapters that examine themes of identity memory history speculative imagination and survival in works that cross boundaries of form nation and discipline Contributors examine a range of contemporary concerns offering critical insights into literary innovation in the twenty first century Through close readings of a diverse group of canonical and contemporary writers the collection highlights how hybrid narrative modes enable fiction to address shifting social realities Drawing from postcolonial feminist ecocritical trauma spatial memory speculative historical decolonial and posthumanist approaches the chapters explore how genre responds to crisis transformation and the demands of contemporary thought This book will appeal to scholars of English literature cultural and literary theory and genre studies offering both global perspectives and locally grounded analyses of literary form Its wide range of genres and applied critical frameworks also makes it a valuable resource for teaching and studying contemporary fiction Danny's Own Story Don Marquis,1912 Foundling boy s autobiography Involves travel with patent medicine show Boulder-pushers Carol Seiler-Franklin,1979 This study examines the female characters in the fiction of Margaret Drabble Doris Lessing and Iris Murdoch from a feminine point of view Various new aspects and striking similarities between the three authors women are shown up Although its methods are scientific this is not an academic investigation but a book to be read by women who want to know their counterparts and by men who want to know women s problems The Doris Lessing Reader Doris Lessing,1989 This reader has been assembled by Doris Lessing herself and it provides a representative introduction to both her fiction and non fiction The book enables the reader to see her ideas evolve over the years as they recur and develop throughout her work Martha Quest Doris Lessing,1964
