Teaching Postdramatic Theatre Glenn D'Cruz, 2018-04-06 This book explores the concept and vocabulary of postdramatic theatre from a pedagogical perspective. It identifies some of the major anxieties and paradoxes generated by teaching postdramatic theatre through practice with reference to the aesthetic, cultural and institutional pressures that shape teaching practices. It also presents a series of case studies that identify the pedagogical fault lines that expose the power relations inherent in teaching with a focus on the higher education sector as opposed to actor training institutions. It uses auto ethnography, performance analysis and critical theory to assist university teachers involved in directing theatre productions to deepen their understanding of the concept of postdramatic theatre.

Psychophysical Acting Phillip B. Zarrilli, 2012-10-12 Psychophysical Acting is a direct and vital address to the demands of contemporary theatre on today's actor. Drawing on over thirty years of intercultural experience, Phillip Zarrilli aims to equip actors with practical and conceptual tools with which to approach their work. Areas of focus include an historical overview of a psychophysical approach to acting from Stanislavski to the present, acting as an energetics of performance applied to a wide range of playwrights, Samuel Beckett, Martin Crimp, Sarah Kane, Kaite O'Reilly and Ota Shogo, a system of training through yoga and Asian martial arts that heightens sensory awareness, dynamic energy and in which body and mind become one, practical application of training principles to improvisation exercises. Psychophysical Acting is accompanied by Peter Hulton's downloadable resources featuring exercises, production documentation, interviews and reflection.

Lives in Play Ryan Claycomb, 2012-08-08 Lives in Play explores the centrality of life narratives to women's drama and performance from the 1970s to the present moment. In the early days of second wave feminism, the slogan was 'The personal is the political'. These autobiographical and biographical true stories have the political impact of the real and have also helped a range of feminists tease out the more complicated aspects of gender, sex and sexuality in a Western culture that now imagines itself to be postfeminist. The book covers a broad range of texts and performances from performance artists like Karen Finley, Holly Hughes and Bobby Baker to playwrights like Suzan Lori Parks, Maria Irene Fornes and Sarah Kane. The book examines biography and autobiography together to link their narrative tactics and theatrical approaches and show the persistent and important uses of life writing strategies for theater artists committed to advancing women's rights and remaking women's representations. Lives in Play argues that these writers and artists have not only responded to the vibrant conversations in feminist theory but also have anticipated and advanced these ideas, theorizing gender onstage for specific ends. Ryan Claycomb demonstrates how these performances work through tensions between performative identity and the essentialized body, between the truth value of life stories and the constructed nature of gender and narrative alike, and between writing and performing as modes of feminist representation. The book will appeal to scholars in performance studies, women's studies and literature, including those in the growing field of auto biography studies.

Critical Perspectives on Resistance in

21st-Century British Literature Nilay Erdem Ayyıldız, 2024-04-03 This book sets out on an intellectual journey with each chapter acting as a unique compass to lead the reader through the critical perspectives on resistance waiting to be discovered in 21st century British literature. As such the book appeals to general readers including undergraduates, researchers, professionals and anyone who is interested in cultural studies, literary studies, the humanities and sociology, particularly resistance and discourse studies. Traces of Dialogue Mads Thygesen, 2025-06-26 This book offers a captivating exploration of the evolving dynamics of language, dialogue and identity in modern theatre, highlighting the pioneering contributions of European playwrights Martin Crimp, Jon Fosse, Sarah Kane, Elfriede Jelinek and Roland Schimmelpfennig. The study reveals the complex interplay between written text and theatrical performance, upending traditional perceptions of language and personal identity. It demonstrates how the work of these writers serves as a catalyst for actors, directors and designers, and encourages a deep dive into their creative processes by interrogating their boundary-pushing works. Covering the pivotal era of the 1990s and 2000s, the book considers the emergence of postdramatic theatre in particular, the transition from conventional storylines and characters to avant garde forms and narratives. It considers the role of language in crafting character identities and examines how contemporary textual approaches mirror and scrutinise the philosophical and aesthetic discussions of the late modern era. Ultimately, this book navigates the intricacies of modern dramaturgy and lauds the transformative potential of theatre to captivate and innovate, challenging a wide readership to re-evaluate the significance of dialogue and identity in contemporary theatre. Koltès Plays; 2 Bernard-Marie Koltès, 2004 Influenced by Genet and Fugard, Koltès' plays combined an underworld mythology with a vision of the harsh realities of life at the end of the 20th century in order to pioneer a new and dynamic style of dramatic writing. Bernard Marie Koltès was born in 1948. Living variously in New York and Paris, he became one of the most challenging and innovative playwrights of his generation. He died in 1989. Twentieth-century French Dramatists Mary Anne O'Neil, 2006 Essays on twentieth-century French playwrights who were largely influenced by non-French traditions during the greatest age of French theater since the mid 1700s. French drama of the twentieth century was cosmopolitan, experimental and eclectic, and attempted to appeal to a wider audience than in the past. Dramatists came not only from Paris but from the provinces and the French states of the Caribbean, as well as from Francophone countries such as Belgium. The Theatre of Martin Crimp Aleks Sierz, Martin Crimp, 2006-10-12 For a decade, Martin Crimp has been in the vanguard of new writing for the British stage. His main stage plays include Dealing with Clair, The Treatment, Attempts on Her Life, The Country and Cruel and Tender. Arguing that Crimp is one of the most acute satirists of contemporary British society, Aleks Sierz provides an accessible and fascinating account of his work. This is the first study of Martin Crimp's work for stage and radio, and includes an interview with Crimp himself and interviews with all the key directors responsible for staging his work. Plays International, 2008 Theatre Index, 2007 Theatre Record, 2008 The New York Times Index, 1999 Plays, 1984 London Theatre Record
