Sermons of Martin Luther Martin Luther, 1989 Sermons for Lent and Easter Martin Luther, 2016-11-30 In this unique volume, the reader will find Luther's most significant sermons for Lent and Easter, through Trinity Sunday, including Christ's Ascension and Pentecost, following the church year's most significant lectionary readings associated with the major feasts and fasts. Luther wrote thousands of pages of exposition during his life, but this book makes available in a single volume a core collection of his writing for this liturgical season, featuring Scripture readings that include the most familiar events from the life of Jesus. Other volumes in this series include Luther's sermons for Advent and Christmas Day and his sermons for the Sunday after Christmas Day, New Year's Day, and Epiphany. These writings represent the heart of Luther's thoughts on the Christian faith and his ideas for practical faith in that life.

Martin Luther and the Rule of Faith Todd R. Hains, 2022-10-11 Martin Luther is known for challenging the Roman Catholic church, yet reading God's Word was what Luther considered his primary task. Though he is often portrayed as reading the Bible with a bare approach, Todd R. Hains considers how Luther's interpretation of the text was actually guided by the church's established practice of hermeneutics.

Luther on Faith and Love Sun-young Kim, 2014-10-01 There has been a distinct tendency in modern scholarship to underestimate Luther's teaching on love by overemphasizing his teaching on justification Calling this tendency into question this volume advances the thesis that Luther's teaching on faith and love operates as the overriding thematic pair in the dynamics of Christ and the law structurally and conceptually undergirding the 1535 Galatians commentary The research situates itself in the landscape of Luther scholarship via a special attention to Finnish Luther scholars and scholarship The project argues that in the discussion of proper righteousness and holiness Luther's redefined love emerges in harmony with faith His views on Christian freedom the Christ given law of love the twofold way of fulfilling the law and his Christological premises demonstrate the logical rationale for reintroducing love This love designated as a fruit of faith is incarnated in three major relations love toward God toward others and toward self

The Self-Donation of God Jack D. Kilcrease, 2013-03-20 In The Self Donation of God Jack Kilcrease argues that the speech act of promise is always an act of self donation A person who unilaterally promises to another is bound to take a particular series of actions to fulfill that promise Being that creation is grounded in God's promising speech the divine human relationship is fundamentally one of divine self donation and human receptivity Sin disrupts this relationship and therefore redemption is constituted by a reassertion of divine promise of salvation in the face of the condemnation of the law Gen 3:15 As a new and effective word of grace the promise of a savior begins the process of redemption within which God speaks forth a new narrative of creation In this new narrative God gives himself in an even deeper manner to humanity By donating himself through a promise first to the protological humanity and then to Israel he binds himself to them At the end of this history of self binding God in Christ enters into the condemnation of the law neutralizes it in the cross and brings about a new creation through his omnipotent word of promise actualized in the resurrection Passover and Easter Paul F. Bradshaw, Lawrence A. Hoffman, 1999 Passover and Easter constitute for Jews and Christians respectively two of the most important religious festivals of the year This volume concentrates on the contexts in which they occur the periods of preparation for the feasts and their connection to Shavuot and Pentecost Holy Week and Easter Sermons Martin Luther, 1998-01-01 The sermons in this book are intended as preaching helps and are comprised of Luther's Holy Week and Easter preaching in 1529 Bethlehem and Calvary Martin Luther, 1988 Kurze Auslegung des Kleinen Katechismus D. Martin Luthers Martin Luther, 1912 Critical Theory of Legal Revolutions Hauke Brunkhorst, 2014-06-19 This unique work analyzes the crisis in modern society building on the ideas of the Frankfurt School thinkers Emphasizing social evolution and learning processes it argues that crisis is mediated by social class conflicts and collective learning the results of which are embodied in constitutional and public law First the work outlines a new categorical framework of critical theory in which it is conceived as a theory of crisis It shows that the Marxist focus on economy and on class struggle is too narrow to deal with the range of social conflicts within modern society and posits that a crisis of legitimization is at the core of all crises It then discusses the dialectic of revolutionary and evolutionary developmental processes of modern society and its legal system This volume in the Critical Theory and Contemporary Society by a leading scholar in the field provides a new approach to critical theory that will appeal to anyone studying political sociology political theory and law Sermons of Martin Luther Martin Luther, 1906 Death until Resurrection Joseph Saligoe, 2020-03-11 What really happens to the soul when people die This groundbreaking book may appeal both to Luther experts and to those who know little about the Reformer It demonstrates that Luther constantly taught over the last twenty four years of his life that death is like an unconscious sleep It also shows why this matters today for Christians Death until Resurrection is a great first step in understanding God's plan for renewal of the creation that can alleviate our common fears about death Seeing what exactly the scriptural writers meant regarding death as interpreted by one of the most prominent church leaders ever also provides the benefit of helping us better understand core doctrines such as our resurrection the nature of hell and eternal life through salvation This book offers that which very few writers on Luther have done an explanation that can unravel his apparent contradictions and the Luther paradox on the nature of death and the soul using Luther's own words scattered throughout his voluminous writings Learn which group of widely acclaimed authors or experts on Luther was correct about what Luther believed about death Lohse and George or Althaus and Thiselton D. Martin Luthers Werke Martin Luther, 1914 Selected Writings of Martin Luther: 1529-1546 Martin Luther, 2007
