Marxism In Our Time:

Marxism in Our Time Isaac Deutscher, 1971      And in Our Time Antony Shuttleworth, 2003 This book brings together essays which in diverse ways not only revise existing views on thirties writing but also provide ways of accounting for its critical neglect The essays examine from a variety of theoretical and critical perspectives a body of work that reflects the true diversity of the literary and cultural contexts of the thirties and includes studies on the work of Louis MacNeice Frank Sheed Christopher Dawson Alick West Christopher Caudwell Stevie Smith Storm Jameson Phyllis Bottome Ivy Compton Burnett Graham Greene Eric Ambler George Orwell Christina Stead Randall Swingler and Ralph Fox      Great Speeches Of Our Time Hywel Williams, 2014-08-12 Let each know that for each the body the mind and the soul have been freed to fulfill themselves These powerful words spoken by Nelson Mandela in his inaugural address as the new president of South Africa are taken from just one of the forty important and thought provoking speeches in this collection Ranging from 1945 to the present day they provide an important insight into the modern world Inspirational speeches by Winston Churchill Mikhail Gorbachev Martin Luther King Barack Obama and many others are supplemented with biographies of each speaker as well as an exploration of their words significance and an historical account of the consequences of their oratory This is a history of the recent and contemporary world told through the speeches that shaped it      Marxism in Our Time Leon Trotsky, 1970

In Our Time Verity Burgmann, 1985-01-01 For many Australian working men and women in the closing days of the nineteenth century SOCIALISM IN OUR TIME was no mere slogan The deepening economic depression cut living standards increased class conflict and tested the newborn trade unions to breaking point In this climate the message of socialist agitators made sense of the experience of the most vulnerable capitalism was doomed socialism was not only inevitable it was imminent This is the story of a crucial time in the political history of Australia told from the perspective of the agitators and their followers By uncovering state by state the hitherto ignored faith and work of the tribunes of the people and the organisations created by their working class supporters In Our Time challenges the accepted versions of the social and political ferment which gave rise to the labour movement and its parliamentary expression the Labor parties      Marxism of Our Time Gilles Martinet, 1964      Trotsky, Trotskyism and the Transition to Socialism Peter Beilharz, 2019-11-19 First published in 1987 Trotskyists have long dominated the revolutionary tradition on the Western left Written from a critical socialist standpoint this book provides an analysis of Trotskyism and argues that Trotskyism is increasingly irrelevant as a means of achieving socialism It argues that as the realisation grows that the revolutionary tradition and the authoritarianism which necessarily result from it are wrong the importance of the problem of the transition to socialism increases It argues that on this point Trotskyism is weak that Trotskyism's proposals for socialist transition are largely rhetorical and that its democratic impulse is weak It supports this argument by showing that Trotsky's philosophy of history implicit in his writings which the author characterises as evolutionary and necessitarian coupled with a failure to grasp the moral basis of the socialist case has a disabling effect on Trotsky's account of the transition to socialism and on his explanation of Stalinism. Moreover, it argues that Trotsky's intellectual and political heirs have been unable to escape from the contradictions inherent in his thought.

Marxism in Our Time Leon Trotsky, Hugh Caffrey, 2020-09-27 Socialist Alternative are proud to republish the classic work of revolutionary Marxism by Leon Trotsky. Applying the core ideas of Marxism to the modern world, Trotsky shows the enduring relevance of Marxism to understanding the 20th century and fighting to change the world. A new introduction by Hugh Caffrey makes the connections between the world of the 1930s and the global situation in 2020, drawing out the lessons for how we can organise for socialism in the 21st century. Marxism in our Time is essential reading for any student of Marxism, 20th century history or 21st century international politics.

Our Time But Not Our Place Myra Jean Bourke, 1993 Over the years thousands of women, mostly Australians, have lived as expatriates in Papua New Guinea. We went there at different points in our lives and for a variety of reasons. Some of us were keen to go; we were looking for adventure in exotic surroundings, seeking our fortunes, changing jobs, running away from unhappy situations, furthering our professional or academic interests. Many of us were motivated to go to a developing country to do good. Others went because their partners or their parents had an ambition, an obsession, or a contract. All have stories to tell. So begins Our Time But Not Our Place, in which 31 women tell us of their experiences of Papua New Guinea. Their voices are as diverse as the encounters they describe; their stories span the time between 1930 and 1990; together, their responses challenge commonly held views of the expatriate condition.
