Mesostic Herbarium Alec Finlay, 2004 Poetry Multimedia MESOSTIC HERBARIUM is an album of phytological and mycological poems collected from people in many countries the mesostic is guided by certain rules choose a plant its name gives a stem compose a poem one word per line MESOSTIC HERBARIUM relates to orders of knowledge in particular botany Through these poems we can gauge a wide ranging cultural vision of nature for there is an anthropology at work here Alec Finlay Includes CD ROM of WORDWOOD a collection of animated mesostic poetry by pupils at schools in Durham Sunderland Region and Perthshire Check out other SPD titles by Platform Projects including THE BOOK OF QUESTIONS and TURNING TOWARD LIVING Literary Invention and the Cartographic Imagination ,2022-10-24 Literary Invention and the Cartographic Imagination Early Modern to Late Modern is a wide ranging inter and transdisciplinary approach grounded in the twin rigors of theory and history which through close readings of authors from Edmund Spenser to Olga Tokarczuk and through considered discussions of the ideologies of walking and mapping in performance art and cultural representation assesses and analyses the significance of maps to literary texts and which examines the ways in which the literary maps imaginary and real worlds Together the essays demonstrate convincingly the close relationship between text map and culture

Landscape Poetics Monika Szuba, 2023-09-04 Landscape Poetics is an interdisciplinary study that seeks to place Scottish writers in relation to their landscape by investigating how the self is entwined in place By examining the writing and practice of particular modern and contemporary authors in the light of environmental thought the study explores their lived organic connection to the landscape Landscape Poetics presents an argument that the relationship between author and world is expressed through the language of vibrant and engaged experience Shepherd MacCaig Jamie Clark and Finlay are seen as reinventing the perception of the landscape by proposing that the subject is no longer involved in the act of objectification but is instead an embodied self that enters place perceiving it more fully Whale Years Gregory O'Brien, 2015-07-01 For more than three years poet and artist Gregory O'Brien followed the migratory routes of whales and seabirds across vast tracts of the South Pacific Ocean resulting in a collection of poems that stand as a homage to a series of remarkable locations and the natural histories of those places In three parts this collection stretches across the Pacific following whale roads weather balloons and sons at sea charting historical explorations and other Pacific realisms such as the Pacific trash vortex the wavering democracy of Tonga and the political history of Chile These poems are an exploration of outlying islands the ocean that lies between them and the whale species and sea birds found there From Waihi looking east and Valparaiso looking west O'Brien surveys the cultural heart and health of an ocean in memorable musical moving lines Specimen Colony Alec Finlay, 2008 Cultural Writing Art Produced in collaboration with The Bluecoat Liverpool's oldest arts center Alec Finlay's SPECIMEN COLONY draws on an exhibition and permanent open air installation of participative public sculpture that creates a series of colorful colonies formed by nest boxes functional and familiar objects created by Finlay whose form suggests the schematic figure of a bird Finlay's work transposes the colors of exotic birds found on foreign postage stamps onto these nest boxes playfully commenting on Liverpool's global links of trade and migration while contemplating the city's avian emblem This collage of postage stamps and the remarkable birds that illustrate them not only evokes communication correspondence and collecting but also makes SPECIMEN COLONY an unforgettable and lushly illustrated artist's book that stands on its own aside from the events surrounding the exhibition Alec Finlay is an artist poet and publisher Born in Scotland in 1966 he became the first BALTIC Arts Centre artist in residence
