Church and School in Early Modern Protestantism Jordan Ballor, David Sytsma, Jason Zuidema, 2013-08-08 A great deal of scholarship has too often juxtaposed scholasticism and piety resulting in misunderstandings of the relationship between Protestant churches of the early modern era and the theology taught in their schools But more recent scholarship especially conducted by Richard A Muller over the last number of decades has remapped the lines of continuity and discontinuity in the relation of church and school This research has produced a more methodologically nuanced and historically accurate representation of church and school in early modern Protestantism Written by leading scholars of early modern Protestant theology and history and based on research using the most relevant original sources this collection seeks to broaden our understanding of how and why clergy were educated to serve the church Contributors include Yuzo Adhinarta Willem van Asselt Irena Backus Jordan J Ballor J Mark Beach Andreas Beck Joel R Beeke Lyle D Bierma Raymond A Blacketer James E
