Metis Makers Of History:

Métis Makers of History Grant MacEwan, 1981      Native People, Native Lands Bruce Alden Cox, 1988 The changing roles of native women devices for assimilation the re birth of the Metis these are among the issues examined in this collection of provocative essays which explore the link between aboriginal culture and economic patterns      My Heroes Have Always Been Indians Cora J. Voyageur, 2018-11-14 In a series of inspirational profiles Cora Voyageur celebrates 100 remarkable Indigenous Albertans whose achievements have enriched their communities the province and the world As a child Cora rarely saw Indigenous individuals represented in her history textbooks or in pop culture Willie Nelson sang My Heroes Have Always Been Cowboys but Cora wondered where were the heroes who looked like her She chose the title of her book in response to help reflect her reality In fact you don t have to look very hard to find Indigenous Albertans excelling in every field from the arts to business and everything in between Cora wrote this book to ensure these heroes receive their proper due Some of the individuals in this collection need no introduction while others are less well known From past and present and from all walks of life these 100 Indigenous heroes share talent passion and legacies that made a lasting impact Read about Douglas Cardinal the architect whose iconic flowing designs grace cities across Alberta across Canada and in Washington DC Nellie Carlson a dedicated activist whose work advanced the cause of Indigenous women and the education of Indigenous children Alex Janvier whose pioneering work has firmly established him as one of Canada s greatest artists Moostoos The Buffalo the spokesperson for the Cree in Treaty 8 talks who fought tirelessly to defend his People s rights And many more      Digital Storytelling in Indigenous Education Yvonne Poitras Pratt, 2019-07-25 Exploring the relationship between the role of education and Indigenous survival Digital Storytelling in Indigenous Education is an ethnographic exploration of how digital storytelling can be part of a broader project of decolonization of individuals their families and communities By recounting how a remote Indigenous M tis community were able to collectively imagine plan and produce numerous unique digital stories representing counter narratives to the dominant version of Canadian history Poitras Pratt provides frameworks approaches and strategies for the use of digital media and arts for the purpose of cultural memory community empowerment and mobilization The volume provides a valuable example of how a community based educational project can create and restore intergenerational exchanges through modern media and covers topics such as Introducing the M tis and their community decolonizing education through a M tis approach to research the ethnographic journey and translating the work of decolonizing to education Digital Storytelling in Indigenous Education is the perfect resource for researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of Indigenous education comparative education and technology education or those looking to explore the role of modern media in facilitating healing and decolonization in a marginalized community      Nation Maker Richard J. Gwyn, 2012-08-21 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER John A Macdonald Canada s first and most important prime minister is the man who made Confederation happen who built this country over the next quarter century and who shaped what it is today From Confederation Day in 1867 where this volume picks up Macdonald finessed a reluctant union of four provinces in central and eastern Canada into a strong nation despite indifference from Britain and annexationist sentiment in the United States But it wasn't easy Gwyn paints a superb portrait of Canada and its leaders through these formative years and also delves deep to show us Macdonald the man as he marries for the second time deals with the birth of a disabled child and the assassination of his close friend Darcy McGee and wrestles with whether Riel should hang Indelibly Gwyn shows us Macdonald's love of this country and his ability to joust with forces who would have been just as happy to see the end of Canada before it had really begun creating a must read for all Canadians Resources for Métis Researchers

Lawrence J. Barkwell, Leah Dorion, Darren R. Préfontaine, Louis Riel Institute, Gabriel Dumont Institute of Native Studies and Applied Research, 1999 This bibliography contains over 2 000 listings of work related to the Métis people of North America primarily Canada The collection attempts to gather a comprehensive listing of resources written for by and about the Métis people Video and audio portrayals of Métis stories and music are listed at the end of the bibliography Web pages are also listed The book includes a historiographical essay intended to give a critical overview of some of the classic scholarly writings on the Métis along with a review of topics that have been identified as contemporary issues and concerns Back cover

Structural Considerations of Métis Ethnicity David Burley, Gayel A. Horsfall, John D. Brandon, 1992 Métis Legacy Louis Riel Institute, 2001 Focuses on the Métis in Canada but also includes some articles and annotated references on the Métis in the United States Native Peoples of Alberta Provincial Archives of Alberta. Historical Resources Library, 1988 Guide based on the collection held by the Historical Resources Library Provincial Archives of Alberta The Riel/real Story John W. Friesen, 1996 History of the Métis and their leader Louis Riel The Métis Purich, Donald, 1988 The first comprehensive account of Métis history and of present day goals including origins the Manitoba and Northwest Rebellions land issues the Dirty Thirties the revival of the 1960s and current efforts to achieve land settlements constitutional protection and self government Women, Collecting, and Cultures Beyond Europe Arlene Leis, 2022-11-04 This book examines collecting around the world and how women have participated in and formed collections globally The edited volume builds on recent research and offers a wider lens through which to examine and challenge women's collecting histories Spanning from the seventeenth century to the twenty first although not organized chronologically the research herein extends beyond European geographies and across time periods it brings to light new research on how artificialia and naturalia were collected transported exchanged and or displayed beyond Europe Women Collecting and Cultures Beyond Europe considers collections as points of contact that forged transcultural connections and knowledge exchange Some authors focus mainly on collectors and what was collected while others consider taxonomies travel patterns of consumption migration markets and the after life of things In its broad and interdisciplinary approach this book amplifies women's voices and aims to position their collecting practices toward new transcultural directions including women's relation to distinct cultures customs and beliefs as well as exposing the challenges women faced when carving a place for themselves within global networks This study will be of interest to scholars working in collections and collecting conservation museum studies art history women s studies material and visual cultures Indigenous studies textile histories global studies history of science social and cultural histories The Gale Encyclopedia of Native American Tribes: Arctic, Subarctic, Great Plains, Plateau Sharon Malinowski,1998 Metis Julia Diane Harrison,1985 History of the Metis people in Canada Canadian Books in Print ,1992 Resource Reading List 1990 Patricia McDowell,1990 This bibliography of materials by and about native people in Canada and elsewhere includes a list of criteria for evaluating materials books for children and elementary schools teaching resources by type including audio visual books for youth and adults by subject and lists of native periodicals and publishers Canadian Book Review Annual ,1983 Alberta History ,1999 First Nations Students Talk Back Francis Adu-Febiri,Camosun College,2004 A representation of journeys of learning about the pre contact contact and post contact histories and experiences of Canada s Indigenous people articulated primarily by students of First Nations ancestry Critical dynamics of the legal and political history of Indigenous non Indigenous relations are highlighted and fresh and useful insights into race ethnic relations in Canada are provided The authors simultaneously celebrate survival and mourn tragedy throughout this collection You will read words tinged with anger couched in sorrow and presented with humour you will learn more about Canada particularly British Columbia than you ever expected The Canadian Who's who ,1995
