Metodología De La Historia De Las Religi:

Metodología de la historia de las religiones Mircea Eliade, Joseph Mitsuo Kitagawa, 2010-02 La historia de las religiones se ha convertido hoy en día en una rama del saber particularmente fructífera. Aumenta nuestro conocimiento del hombre al tratar de penetrar en su naturaleza existencial como ser relacionado con la religión e ilumina el presente al explorar la historia y el significado de su pasado religioso. En este libro dedicado a la memoria de Joaquim Wach los compiladores y otros cinco eminentes analizan cada uno a su manera particular los problemas metodológicos de la historia de las religiones problemas que necesariamente deben solucionarse para que pueda convertirse en una disciplina independiente.

El libro recoge la historia ininterrumpida de la Escuela Normal del Magisterio de Alicante desde 1900 a 1975. La investigación ha puesto de manifiesto que las escuelas normales han sido algo más que un centro de formación del magisterio. Estadistas ilustrados como Jovellanos ya en el siglo XVIII eran conscientes de la importancia que tenía la educación para el progreso de la nación. El liberalismo motivado por esta necesidad impulsó la modernización del Estado promoviendo un sistema de enseñanza público y creando escuelas de magisterio para disponer de profesionales cualificados. La necesidad de formar buenos docentes ha sido y es una constante que se mantiene hasta la actualidad. Pero las escuelas públicas de enseñanza primaria y establecimientos de formación del profesorado poseen otra función: desde su origen la transmisión de valores culturales políticos religiosos políticos. La investigación recogida no sólo aborda cómo se desarrolló la formación blica del magisterio en la provincia de Alicante sino también su implicación en la sociedad y en la transmisión de valores de las diferentes realidades políticas vividas durante la Segunda República Guerra Civil y Franquismo El pensamiento nico defendido en la posguerra requirir un modelo docente que defendiera los valores del nuevo régimen y la enseñanza en Escuela Normal en Alicante se ajusta a este nuevo objetivo El currículo académico viene caracterizado por la formación y personalidad de los docentes Por esta razón también se ha investigado las biografías académicas destacando las aportaciones bibliográficas La investigación publicada incluye el análisis de los planes de estudios y los diseños curriculares que regularon la formación de los maestros En la medida de lo posible igualmente se ha considerado al alumnado que asistía a las clases desde diferentes referentes académicos sociales culturales o políticos entre otros Otras cuestiones incorporadas han sido las infraestructuras materiales y recursos didácticos de las escuelas normales pues el contexto material en el que se desarrolla permite comprender mejor el desarrollo y funcionamiento de las escuelas normales La publicación igualmente aborda la metodología didáctica la investigación y la innovación vivida en estos establecimientos formativos Aspectos que por exponerse al final no resultan menos trascendentes
