Mexican Gold Trail Glenn S. Dumke, 2006 Publisher Description     Making Animal Meaning Linda Kalof, Georgina M. Montgomery, 2011-12-01 An elucidating collection of ten original essays Making Animal Meaning reconceptualizes methods for researching animal histories and rethinks the contingency of the human-animal relationship. The vibrant and diverse field of animal studies is detailed in these interdisciplinary discussions which include voices from a broad range of scholars and have an extensive chronological and geographical reach. These exciting discourses capture the most compelling theoretical underpinnings of animal significance while exploring meaning making through the study of specific spaces, species and human-animal relations. A deeply thoughtful collection vital to understanding central questions of agency, kinship and animal consumption, these essays tackle the history and philosophy of constructing animal meaning.     Autobiographical Writings on Mexico Richard D. Woods, 2024-10-14 This is the definitive bibliography of autobiographical writings on Mexico. The book incorporates works by Mexicans and foreigners with authors ranging from disinherited peasants, women, servants and revolutionaries to more famous painters, writers, singers, journalists and politicians. Primary sources of historic and artistic value, the writings listed provide multiple perspectives on Mexico's past and give clues to a national Mexican identity. This work presents 1,850 entries including autobiographies, memoirs, collections of letters, diaries, oral autobiographies, interviews and autobiographical novels and essays. Over 1,500 entries list works from native-born Mexicans written between 1691 and 2003. Entries include basic bibliographical data, genre, author's life dates, narrative dates, available translations into English and annotation. The bibliography is indexed by author, title and subject and appendices provide a chronological listing of works and a list of selected outstanding autobiographies.     Down the Santa Fé Trail and Into Mexico Susan Shelby Magoffin, 1926     The Treasure Trail Marah Ellis Ryan, 1919     The Silver of the Sierra Madre John Mason Hart, 2022-07-12

In the great barranca known today as Copper Canyon, the small mining town of Batopilas once experienced a silver bonanza among the largest ever known American investors, believing that Mexico offered an unexploited cornucopia. Began purchasing mines in the Sierra Madre seeking to expand their hold on natural resources outside U.S. borders. From 1861 until the Revolution of 1910, the men of the Batopilas Mining Company ruled the region using their wealth, armed might and extensive connections. The technology, industrialism and politics their interests brought to this remote community tied the Tarahumara, Yaqui, Mayo and other peoples of the barrancas directly to the economies of the United States and China. Local society was revolutionized and a dramatic tapestry of human interactions was created. Based on many volumes of mining company records, The Silver of the Sierra Madre exposes the mentality and methods of mine owners John Robinson and Alexander Boss.

Shepherd vividly detailing their exploitation of the people and the natural resources of Chihuahua Hart aptly demonstrates the human and financial losses resulting from President Porfirio Díaz's development programs which relied on foreign investors foreign managers and foreign technology This unprecedented work also provides a highly interesting ethnographic and social description of one of the least known areas of Mexico It is a tale of power and desperation respect and arrogance adventure and tragedy and ultimately triumph and survival    The Trail ,1913    Forest and Stream ,1919    Naturalists and Their Travels in Mexico Horace R.
