ideal for comparisons The collective analysis of the contributors who hail from a range of disciplines ultimately defies the simple characterization of migration as a choice of people seeking better income opportunities The authors are sensitive to the ways that race class and gender dynamics influence the composition of migratory flows the reasons why people migrate and the outcomes of population movements Each chapter explicates the human cost of migration giving readers a better understanding of social issues underlying migration at the beginning of the 21st century Temporary Workers or

(Project), 1998 Deportation Nation Dan Kanstroom, 2007-04-15 Deportation Nation is a history of communal self idealization and self protection It aims to answer two fundamental questions how should we understand deportation and what are the antecedents of our current deportation system Daniel Kanstroom argues that deportation has always been a way not only to manage immigration but also to control noncitizens lives It has become a crude and inefficient legal tool in ill defined wars on terror and crime Deportation Nation illuminates shadowed corners of American history and demands more attention to hard problems of immigration law and human rights in a globalized but often xenophobic world R sum de l diteur
