Mexican Murals in Times of Crisis Bruce Campbell, 2003-02 Blending ethnography political science and sociology with art history Campbell traces the emergence of modern Mexican mural art as a composite of aesthetic discursive and performative elements through which collective interests and identities are shaped He focuses on mural activists engaged combatively with the state in barrios unions and street protests to show that mural arts that are neither connected to the elite art world nor supported by the government have made significant contributions to Mexican culture Mexican Mural Art Roberto Cantú, 2020-11-24 This volume collects the work of prominent art critics art historians and literary critics who study the art lives and times of the leading Mexican muralists Jos Clemente Orozco Diego Rivera and among other artists David Alfaro Siqueiros Written exclusively for this book in English or in Spanish and with a full length introduction in English the selected essays respond to a surging interest in Mexican mural art bringing forth new interpretations and perspectives from the standpoint of the 21st century The volume s innovative and varied critical approaches will be of interest to a wide readership including professors and students of Mexican muralism as well as the speculative reader public libraries and art galleries around the world

The Casa del Deán Penny C. Morrill, 2023-09-15 The Casa del De n in Puebla Mexico is one of few surviving sixteenth century residences in the Americas Built in 1580 by Tom s de la Plaza the Dean of the Cathedral the house was decorated with at least three magnificent murals two of which survive Their rediscovery in the 1950s and restoration in 2010 revealed works of art that rival European masterpieces of the early Renaissance while incorporating indigenous elements that identify them with Amerindian visual traditions Extensively illustrated with new color photographs of the murals The Casa del De n presents a thorough iconographic analysis of the paintings and an enlightening discussion of the relationship between Tom s de la Plaza and the indigenous artists whom he commissioned Penny Morrill skillfully traces how native painters trained by the Franciscans used images from Classical mythology found in Flemish and Italian prints and illustrated books from France as well as animal images and glyphic traditions with pre Columbian origins to create murals that are reflective of Don Tom s s erudition and his role in evangelizing among the Amerindians She demonstrates how the importance given to rhetoric by both the Spaniards and the Nahuas became a bridge of communication between these two distinct and highly evolved cultures This pioneering study of the Casa del De n mural cycle adds an important new chapter to the study of colonial Latin American art as it increases our understanding of the process by which imagery in the New World took on Christian meaning
