Miami Years 1809 1984:

The Miami Years, 1809-1984 Walter Havighurst, 1984 Benjamin Harrison Anne Chieko Moore, 2006 Benjamin Harrison was an honest intelligent hardworking lawyer from Indiana who became the twenty third President of the United States During his term in office he signed important legislation and provided leadership in negotiating foreign policy striving to advance the United States toward becoming a world power The book presents an up to date and cogent biography of this president who is now considered one of the better presidents of the late nineteenth century Replanting Cultures Chief Benjamin J. Barnes, Stephen Warren, 2022-09-01 Replanting Cultures provides a theoretical and practical guide to community engaged scholarship with Indigenous communities in the United States and Canada Chapters on the work of collaborative respectful and reciprocal research between Indigenous nations and colleges and universities museums archives and research centers are designed to offer models of scholarship that build capacity in Indigenous communities Replanting Cultures includes case studies of Indigenous nations from the St l of the Fraser River Valley to the Shawnee and Miami tribes of Oklahoma Ohio and Indiana Native and non Native authors provide frank assessments of the work that goes into establishing meaningful collaborations that result in the betterment of Native peoples Despite the challenges readers interested in better research outcomes for the world s Indigenous peoples will be inspired by these reflections on the practice of community engagement How Student Journalists Report Campus Unrest Kaylene Dial Armstrong, 2017-11-22 Journalists are trained to tell the stories of others and leave themselves out of their writing Student journalists are no different They spend their days on their college newspaper writing about what happens to others especially when what is happening involves protests sit ins riots hunger strikes and other unrest on the very campuses where they also attend school Now some of these former student reporters and editors tell their own stories of some of the challenges all student journalists face in reporting events that most administrators would rather see not covered at all For some this is the first time the stories of what happened in the newsrooms and behind the scenes will appear in print Some of the issues they discuss include censorship the role of the newspaper as the conscience of the community objective and activist journalism and the challenges of reporting crises The protests covered here represent the many concerns college student protesters have tackled through the decades integration in 1962 the free speech movement of 1964 racial issues and the Vietnam War in 1968 and 1970 and continuing racial issues in the present Many of these former student journalists look back decades to their work in the 1960s Some discuss a more recent protest Looking back they admit they might have done things differently if they had to do it again yet all are fiercely proud of the work they did in recording the first version of history Cautionary Tales Alice W. Brown, 2023-07-03 Scarcely a week goes by without a headline about the unsustainability of higher education as we know it under threat from new models for profits or online education Most threatened are small liberal arts colleges with commentators predicting the demise of colleges with fewer than 1 000 or even 1 500 students Are these trends inevitable or can they be overcome Through a unique case study approach to examining and analyzing colleges that have struggled Alice Brown reveals the steps that can lead to a sustainable operation and when closure is inevitable the steps to do so with orderliness and dignity Rather than expounding on trends or management theory and prescriptions Brown focuses on narrative examples of survival and closure recounted by real people in actual colleges and reports the lessons they learned Here are examples of strategies involving mergers partnerships or going it alone and their outcomes that illustrate principles that can serve as guides for fragile colleges struggling to address their social and economic challenges Added to Brown's six carefully researched and extended case studies her own insights and analyses of decisions made and actions taken this book offers guidance by seasoned scholars and administrators on issues as varied as leadership the roles of the president governing boards faculty and staff in articulating and implementing mission and strategies for survival and on the changing landscape of higher education The references to the literature on college survival strategies constitute an education in themselves While this book is of immediate practical value for trustees and leaders of small colleges as they look toward and plan for the future and for anyone aspiring to an administrative positions in higher education the examples constitute a microcosm of the interplay between the external constituencies governance structures and internal forces that sustain or undermine institutional health and which are hard to observe clearly in larger more decentralized environments

Wrongs of Passage Hank Nuwer, 2001 Explores the problems of hazing and binge drinking at fraternities and sororities on American college campuses telling the stories of some of the young people who have been seriously injured or died as a result of such behaviors and offers a list of recommendations for reform
