A. Gill,2008 AA Gill has been the must read television critic in the Sunday Times Culture section for more than ten years This collection of some of the best writing from his columns is broken down into themes Sport Costume Drama Detectives Children s Television and News And now it s over to AA Gill Those who complain usually from the Parnassian heights of print journalism that TV is dumbed down and peddles dross to the lowest common denominator citing Big Brother or Celibate Love Island miss the point Reality TV is the exception it s a tiny proportion of television s output Most of broadcasting tells you things and it s TV s great gift to impart information The real criticism should be that it doesn t differentiate enough It doesn t know the value of the stuff it pours out in a constant warm stream We absorb what s useful and interesting In barely a generation the information from television has changed the way we see the world and everyone in it That s no small achievement Television really does make a difference There are obvious individual examples Cathy Come Home the newsreel of the Vietnam war in America the Ethiopian famine And television has utterly changed sport Do you imagine there d be anything like this fuss over an Olympics bid if it was only going to be shown on Pathe newsreel Charities and pressure groups from pillar box conservation to animal welfare and cancer research glean power and funds from tiny exposures on the box It can bring down walls save lives and right wrongs It can also tell you how to put a water feature on your patio
