Mezzaterra Ahdaf Soueif,2004-01-01 Selected essays and journalism from the author of the critically acclaimed The Map of Love     Arab Voices in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh, Layla Maleh,2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa I S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarru Fadia Fayed Suyoufie

Edinburgh Companion to the

Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana,2015-04-17 Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf     A Century of Encounters Tanja Stampfl,2019-02-08 A Century of Encounters analyzes Arab American and European literary depictions of self and other as they interact with each other in Arab North Africa throughout the twentieth century and introduces the trope of the encounter as a lens through which to read contemporary world literature comparatively A focus on the transnational encounter allows for the in depth study of constructions of gender race and national identities both for the self and the other in order to answer the seemingly simple questions What makes up different encounters in the twentieth century and how can we facilitate a productive and positive encounter between these groups This book illustrates connections between literary texts that have hitherto been overlooked and establishes an intertextual genealogy of transcultural encounters throughout the twentieth century that coalesce around the themes of desire family and travel In its literary analysis A Century of Encounters aims to facilitate a better understanding of other cultures in general and contribute to constructive cross cultural interactions between the United States Europe and Arab North Africa in particular     Community Boundaries and Border Crossings Kristen Lillvis,Robert

Miltner,Molly Fuller,2016-12-21 Globalization and transnationalism have reshaped our communities and their borderlines Communities exceed fixed boundaries existing instead in the liminal spaces where narratives intersect clash or cooperate These liminal spaces physical and virtual local and global provide opportunities for diversifying discussions on diaspora cultural hybridity and ethnic identity Ethnic women writers make significant contributions to this dialogue regarding the reconfiguration of people and their perimeters A multigenre and multicultural text Community Boundaries and Border Crossings explores the novels short stories essays autobiographies testimonios plays poems and hybrid poetics of established and emerging ethnic women writers This collection of critical essays highlights the new zones of cultural contact and exchange that are defining the twenty first century Each chapter reflects an awareness of cultural changes and challenges engaging readers in a richly productive conversation concerning the interconnectedness of border crossings and community boundaries

Women, Culture, and the January 2011 Egyptian Revolution Dalia Mostafa,2018-02-02 This book comes at a time when the Egyptian nation is facing deep divisions about the notion and definition of revolution The articles here aim to look at the 2011 Egyptian Revolution and the central role of women within it from a critical perspective Our objective is not to glorify the revolution or inflate the role of Egyptian women within its parameters but to analyse and critique both the achievements and setbacks of this revolution and the contributions of various strata of women to the revolutionary process which is still unfolding Women's participation is part of a broader picture and needs to be considered as an essential element of the ongoing struggle for freedom and social justice not in isolation of it The reader will soon realise that the authors in this book perhaps agree on one profound aspect of the 2011 Revolution the struggle is ongoing and the revolutionary process is still being shaped and recreated The story of the Egyptian Revolution still resists any kind of closure despite the ascendance of the military regime once again to power The years to come will no doubt witness an expansion of the political and cultural archive of the Egyptian and Arab uprisings accompanied by much academic work on their impact and significance Women's roles and contributions need to occupy a central position in these academic analyses This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal for Cultural Research
